Respected Hon'ble Guests, members of the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee, members of the College Governing Body, distinguished dignitaries, esteemed alumni, respected Principals and Professors from various institutions, dear colleagues from the teaching and non-teaching faculty, valued parents, and beloved students; it is with pride and humility that I stand before you today, as we celebrate the collective endeavour that has shaped and continues to steer the journey of our esteemed institution, now marking its 74th year of distinguished service.

Since its humble inception in 1951, the journey of our college has been continually illuminated by the timeless wisdom of our revered Gurus. Their teachings have been a constant source of strength and guidance in all that we have pursued. Through the decades, we have remained steadfast in our commitment to serving the nation and its people, nurturing in our students the ideals of courage, leadership, compassion, and selfless service. It has been our abiding mission to uphold and celebrate the rich and inclusive heritage of sacrifice and community service, a true reflection of the deep spiritual ethos of our faith in the Eternal One

Our institution's distinguished standing within the University of Delhi and beyond is a testament to the unwavering commitment of our faculty to academic excellence and research, the professional accomplishments of our alumni, and the achievements of our students across academic, athletic, and cultural domains. Strengthened by the sustained support of the Sikh community of Delhi, these successes reflect the solid foundations laid by our predecessors and the enduring values they have entrusted to us.

It is, therefore, with great honour and deep gratitude that I present to you the progress we have achieved — the result of the dedication, perseverance, and collective vision of all who have shaped this esteemed institution. This legacy remains our most cherished inheritance, and it is my privilege to share with you its continuing story today.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, established in 1951, is a prestigious institution under the University of Delhi, managed by the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee. Initially founded to provide education to Punjabi refugees post-partition, the college began in Dev Nagar, New Delhi, and moved to its current campus in University Enclave in 1971. The campus was inaugurated by Smt. Indira Gandhi in 1973. Rooted in the legacy of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib, the college's value system is defined by secularism, human rights, and the mar-jeevda ideal of fearless, principled living.

The college offers 19 undergraduate and 14 postgraduate programs across Humanities, Commerce, and Sciences. It has evolved significantly, with the introduction of postgraduate courses and various certificate programs in foreign and Indian languages. The college also provides undergraduate and postgraduate diplomas, including a unique Postgraduate Diploma in Forensic Science. In alignment with the National Education Policy 2020, the college offers flexible subject combinations, Skill Enhancement Courses and Value Addition Courses (SEC and VAC). Presently, we have on the rolls 2670 students.

Academic excellence is supported by state-of-the-art laboratories in Zoology, Botany, Chemistry, Physics, Electronics, and Computer Science, along with a botanical garden for research. The Mata Gujri Library, with over 1,45,300 books, digital resources, and access to national and international journals, supports scholarly pursuits. The Guru Angad Dev Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre offers various faculty development programs and MOOCs.

The college also boasts a national-level sports complex and hosts annual tournaments, such as the Sahibzada Zorawar Singh & Sahibzada Fateh Singh T-20 Cricket Tournament and the Baba Deep Singh Hockey & Basketball Tournaments (both men's and women's, with floodlight facilities). These events attract state, national, and international-level players. The Sports quota admissions in our college are available in the following 9 games: Cricket, Hockey, Handball, Basketball, Baseball, Volleyball, Athletics, Tennis, and Badminton. Other in-college sports events, including 'Khelutsav,' Yoga Day, and various year-round tournaments, further enrich the sports culture.

The on-campus girls' hostel, with 147 beds and modern amenities, provides a comfortable living environment for students. The Master Tara Singh Auditorium, a hub for cultural and academic events, hosts over fifteen academic societies, ten co-curricular societies, and thirteen arts and cultural societies, including the vibrant annual "Lashkara" festival, which celebrates the college's rich cultural life. The college adheres to University of Delhi regulations and promotes a dynamic academic atmosphere.

The UGC-Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (UGC-MMTTC) at SGTB Khalsa College, University of Delhi, is a premier national centre under the Ministry of Education, recognized for its outstanding contribution to teacher training and its leadership in implementing NEP-2020, having conducted over 50 events in 2024-25, benefitting 8,329 participants nationwide.

During this academic session, the college saw 55 teaching faculty promotions and one non-teaching promotion. Academic distinction was marked by five major externally funded research projects—supported by UGC, ANRF, DRDO, and the University of Delhi—totalling ₹1.54 crore, along with patents awarded to the Departments of Computer Science and Zoology. Faculty contributions included numerous publications in reputed national and international journals, books, and edited volumes. Across departments, faculty members presented papers, served as resource persons, keynote speakers, and were recognized as executive members, subject experts, and research supervisors on prominent academic platforms. Several faculty members of the college have received prestigious recognitions and appointments at national and international levels for their outstanding contributions in their respective fields, showcasing the institution’s commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and cultural promotion. During the academic session, 17 Academic Societies and 39 ECA Societies were actively coordinated by the faculty, fostering a vibrant co-curricular environment. The college hosted a series of distinguished lectures, seminars, conferences, and workshops, graced by eminent speakers and guests, enriching the academic discourse.

The institution’s strong commitment to social responsibility was reflected in a wide range of outreach initiatives conducted under the Viksit Bharat Programme, NSS, NCC, the Viksit Bharat Ambassador Club, and the Connecting Dreams Foundation Society. Notably, the UGC-MMTTC conducted 610 programmes, engaging 1,15,501 participants, and ranked first among 144 centres nationwide in both the number of programmes conducted and total beneficiaries reached.

The college secured top positions in Inter-College Competitions 2024 organized by the Delhi University Sports Council and other open tournaments. Highlights include 4 gold medals in athletics, standout performances in badminton at national and international levels, and basketball representation at the North Zone and Khelo India National Games. Notable achievements were also recorded in cricket, handball, and judo. The successful conduct of the 11th Sahibzada Zorawar Singh and Sahibzada Fateh Singh Floodlight T20 Tournament reaffirmed the college’s strong commitment to promoting sportsmanship.

The unwavering contributions of 138 dedicated faculty members and 111 committed non-teaching staff reflect the institution’s enduring pursuit of academic excellence, cultural vitality, and intellectual growth.

MATA GUJRI LIBRARY

The College Library is a well-stocked facility with a collection of more than 1,45,300 books and titles across various disciplines, along with 7 Indian journals, 28 magazines, and 27 newspapers. It holds institutional membership with the UGC-NLIST program. It is connected to the Delhi University wide-area campus networking system and provides users access to electronic resources through the Delhi University Library System (DULS) and the UGC-INFONET Consortium. Students automatically become members of the library upon admission to the College. It maintains an excellent collection of textbooks, general books, and reference materials to support the academic requirements of both students and faculty members. It caters to the needs of undergraduate and postgraduate students, supporting their research and learning activities. The services are fully automated. The annual general budget allocated for books was ₹13,65,000 (Rupees Thirteen Lakh Sixty-Five Thousand only) this year. The library also houses a separate section with 8,000 classics and reference books on Sikh studies. Additionally, approximately 2,000 books across various subjects are added to the collection each year.

The library is fully computerized, with all books bar-coded and easily accessible through the Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC). A gate security system and 32 CCTV cameras ensure constant monitoring. It also preserves all editions of the college magazine The Tegh, with the first edition published in 1953. The three-floor library houses the circulation counter, OPAC, processing section, and stacks on the ground floor; textbooks, reference books, periodicals, and a teachers' reading room on the first floor; and a 200-seat reading hall with an LCD projector for orientation and training on the second floor. A separate room has been allotted on the ground floor of the library for PWD students. The library has subscription to LEX software from University of Delhi which allows PWD students to convert e-books to PDF and download them to be used as study material.

Workshops and Training Programmes

- Library Orientation: Conducted at the start of each academic session to familiarize students with the library's resources and services.
- N-LIST Training: Held twice weekly to train students in using e-resources and gather feedback.
- Internship Programme: Library Science students undergo one-month training across all library sections.
- New Arrivals: Lists of newly added books are periodically displayed in the reading hall.
- Question Bank and Syllabus: Previous years' question papers and syllabi are available for reference and photocopying.

New Initiatives

- Library is in the process of becoming fully air-conditioned.
- A dedicated library web page will be launched soon.

SRI GURU HAR RAI BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Guru Har Rai Botanical Garden of the college is flourishing with a variety of plant species. Some of the important medicinal plants growing in the garden include Ashwagandha, Kala Bansa, Neem, Aloe vera, Patthar chatta, Shatavari, varieties of Tulasi etc. To add more varieties of Tulasi to the garden, the event “Ek Kadam Arogyata ki ore” was organized by Department of Botany which was followed by planting the nursery beds in the garden with Tulasi varieties like shyama Tulasi and long Tulasi by Principal Sir, Guest speakers and Faculty members on 10.09.2025. In collaboration with NSS, SGTB Khalsa College, a project on Compost making is currently going on in the botanical garden. The flora of garden is added up by plant species Crotalaria juncea (Sun Hemp), Cotton, Cajanus cajan (Arhar) and other species required for botanical practical such as Coriander, Spinach, Fenugreek, Fennel, Salvia, Wheat etc. The rockery of the garden was maintained and participated in the “Annual Flower Show” of University of Delhi, 2025. A team of 75 students of B.A.M.S second year from Shree Saptashruni Ayurved Mahavidyalaya & Hospital, Nashik enthusiastically visited the Botanical Garden in March, 2025 along with 3 faculty members to study medicinal plants growing in the garden.

UGC-MALAVIYA MISSION TEACHER TRAINING CENTRE

The UGC-MMTTC/GAD-MMTTC at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, University of Delhi, is a UGC and Ministry of Education initiative. Formerly the Guru Angad Dev Teaching Learning Centre (GAD-TLC), it has pioneered faculty training since 2016. Selected to lead NEP 2020 training under the Malaviya Mission-Teacher Training Programme (MMTTP), it is one of only four centres awarded MMTTC status from 45,000 colleges nationwide.

Vision: To enhance faculty competencies in teaching, research, and Indian values while aligning with NEP 2020.

Ranked first among 144 centres, UGC-MMTTC has conducted the most programmes with the highest number of beneficiaries. At the MMTTP Northern Zone Regional Workshop (March 2025), Prof. Vimal Rarh shared best practices for NEP Orientation.

The Centre offers online and offline programmes for CAS promotion, including NEP Orientation, Faculty Induction, Refresher Courses, and Faculty Development Programmes. It also conducts training for non-teaching staff and collaborates with other institutions. Some programmes are fully or partially UGC-sponsored.

Collaborations of UGC-MMTTC (GAD-MMTTC) – 2024-25

In the year 2024–25, UGC-MMTTC (GAD-MMTTC) conducted 50 events (online, offline, and hybrid modes) attended by 8,329 participants across the country, in collaboration with various national and international institutions.

International Collaboration - UGC-MMTTC has partnered with NPTC Group of Colleges, United Kingdom.

National Collaborations - In India, UGC-MMTTC collaborated with 7 institutions in Delhi, 5 in Maharashtra, 2 in Uttar Pradesh, and 1 each in Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Rajasthan, Assam, Madhya Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Haryana, and Bihar.

A Grand total of 610 events with 1,15,501 beneficiaries till March 2025.

MAJOR PROJECTS

- Dr Vimal Rarh (Department of Chemistry) has been sanctioned ₹ 77.10 lakh for a major project entitled “UGC-MMTTC”. The grant has been provided by UGC under the scheme 'Malaviva Mission- Teacher Training Programme' of Ministry of Education, Govt. of India and covers the duration from 01 April 2024 to 31 March 2025.
- Dr. Sukanta Dutta and Dr. Mamta Dahiya, (Department of Physics) have been sanctioned ₹56,27,383/- for a research project entitled “New Physics Signatures at Small and Large Scales”. The grant has been provided by Anusandhan National Research Foundation (ANRF) [Grant No. CRG/2023/008234] and covers the duration from October 2024 till September 2027.
- Dr. Sukanta Dutta, (Department of Physics) has been sanctioned ₹ 5,00,000/- for a research project entitled “Simulating Quantum Oscillations with Quantum Algorithms”. The grant has been provided under FRP of the Institution of Eminence (IoE) Scheme [Ref. No. IoE/2024-25/12/FRP dated 06-09-2024], University of Delhi and covers the duration from September 2024 till February 2025.
- Dr. Nidhi Sinha, (Department of Physics) has been sanctioned ₹ 9.9 lakhs for a research project entitled “Study on Optimization of PMN-PT Powder Synthesis”. The grant has been provided by Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) – SSPL CARS Project [Project No. 115/TS/SPL/CARS-101/2023] and covers the duration from June 2023 till June 2024.
- Dr. Nidhi Sinha, (Department of Physics) has been sanctioned ₹ 6,00,000/- for a research project entitled “Piezoelectric nanoparticles for energy harvesting applications”. The grant has been provided under FRP of the Institution of Eminence (IoE) Scheme [Ref. No. IoE/2024-25/12/FRP dated 06-09-2024], University of Delhi and covers the duration from September 2024 till February 2025.

SCIENCE AND DEVELOPMENT CELL

Faculty members are awarded financial assistance for conducting research with the under graduate students. In January 2025, the following projects amounting to Rs 8 lacs and 37 thousand were allotted:

Project No.	PI Name	Title	Amount Sanctioned
RDP/2025/001	Ritwick Bhattacharjee	SGTB Khalsa academic journal of Humanities and Social Sciences	1,08,000
RDP/2025/002	Kushneet Kaur Sodhi	Potential application of bacteria isolated from the River Yamuna in the removal of tetracycline	45,000

Project No.	PI Name	Title	Amount Sanctioned
RDP/2025/003	Ajay Wadhwa	Understanding acoustic phenomena through actuators, sensors, Micro-controllers	25,000
RDP/2025/004	Jasdeep Kaur	Investigating the impact of digital learning on student satisfaction, engagement, and academic achievement	26,000
RDP/2025/005	Inderdeep Kaur	Investigating potential of Sargassum as ameliorative biofertilizer for Sunflower growth and soil health	71,000
RDP/2025/006	Anjana Sagar	Documentation and DNA barcoding of medicinal plants in Ranchi, Jharkhand (India)	50,000
RDP/2025/007	Guntasha Kaur Tulsi	Shaping of Sikh Education through the use of Gurmukhi	26,000
RDP/2025/008	Manpreet Kaur	Script: An investigation of select Sikh Periodicals (1890-1920)	35,000
RDP/2025/011	Deepali Joon	Development of a cost-effective and rapid DNA extraction protocol for detecting Mycobacterium in infected fish	1,08,000
RDP/2025/012	Kuldeep Kumar	Dielectric Properties of Ce ³⁺ Doped NaLi ₂ PO ₄	41,000
RDP/2025/013	Roopam Jasmeet Kaur	Breaking the Myth of Origin of Modern Science in the West: Copernicus, Galileo and Newton	43,000
RDP/2025/014	Inderpreet Singh	To study the degradation behaviour of Dihydropyridine doped P3HT:PCBM photovoltaic devices	43,000
RDP/2025/016	Gurdeep Kaur Sura	Women in Movies (in Punjabi)	37,000
RDP/2025/017	Ruchi Kaur	Novel analytical solutions of non-linear partial differential equations using innovations and variations to the generalized exponential rational function method	50,000
RDP/2025/018	Harpreet Singh Raina	Phytopathological Studies understanding the role of insect vector in transmission of bacterial infection in tree vegetation in Delhi University	53,000
RDP/2025/020	Inderpreet Kaur	Relationship among self-regulatory eating behaviour, food consumption patterns, and BMI in young people	25,000
RDP/2025/022	Dharmendera Kumar	Analytical Solutions for non-linear partial differential equations and their dynamical analysis	22,000
RDP/2025/023	Parkash Singh	Role and analysis of faunal biodiversity in the bioremediation of Yamuna River in NCR region	29,000

ACADEMIC RESULTS

The examination results have been overwhelmingly satisfactory across all three academic years, with a significant percentage of students securing high scores and first-division rankings. The detailed analysis is as follows:

Third Year: Out of 1,067 students who appeared for the examinations, 599 students secured 7.5 CGPA (75%) and above, while 304 students scored 6.0 CGPA (60%) and above. This indicates a strong academic performance among third-year students, with a high percentage achieving distinction.

Second Year: A total of 789 students appeared for the examinations. Among them, 252 students achieved 7.5 CGPA (75%) and above, while 315 students secured 6.0 CGPA (60%) and above. The results show consistent academic performance in the second year.

First Year: In the first-year examinations, 925 students appeared. 258 students secured 7.5 CGPA (75%) and above, while 339 students obtained 6.0 CGPA (60%) and above. The results highlight a promising start for first-year students.

INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

Convenor: Dr. Rachan Kaur

Gender Sensitisation Sessions (10-20 September, 2024)

The members of the ICC explained what constitutes sexual harassment under the law. Over 500 students attended these sessions, which were designed to foster a respectful and inclusive environment by raising awareness of gender roles, equality, and the need to challenge stereotypes. The presentation outlined the procedures for filing complaints, the legal frameworks such as the POSH Act and UGC Guidelines, and the steps taken by the ICC to ensure impartial redressal. It also debunked common myths surrounding sexual harassment, emphasized the seriousness of the issue, and detailed the potential consequences for those found guilty of misconduct.

Training session of Internal Complaints Committee members (23 October, 2024)

A training session for ICC members was conducted by Ms. Rupinder Kaur, the External Member of ICC. She emphasized strategies to improve the ICC's effectiveness and addressed key issues related to workplace sexual harassment. Ms. Kaur highlighted the importance of recognizing inappropriate behaviour, understanding the reporting process, and ensuring fair investigations. She stressed the need for written complaints and responses to promote clarity, confidentiality, and transparency in the resolution process. Additionally, it was suggested that the list of ICC members with contact details be posted on the college website and notice boards to enhance accessibility and trust.

Period Pain Simulation Event (06th March 2025)

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) and Women Development Cell (WDC) of SGTB Khalsa College, in collaboration with Womenite NGO, organized a Period Pain Simulation event to promote menstrual health awareness and gender sensitivity. The initiative aimed to challenge societal taboos and foster empathy among participants. The event educated students, especially men, about menstrual pain through a simulation device that mimicked period cramps. Participants voluntarily experienced the discomfort, leading to increased awareness and empathy. Many expressed surprise at the intensity of the pain, fostering meaningful conversations on menstrual health and breaking societal stereotypes. The event saw active participation, with attendees pledging to support menstrual awareness initiatives. It successfully fostered inclusivity and understanding, making it a significant step toward gender equality.

Poster Making Competition and Slogan writing Competition (3rd April 2025)

As part of the Lashkara 2025 annual fest, the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College organized a Poster Making Competition centred on the theme: "No More Silence, No More Violence: Speak Up Against Sexual Harassment." And a Slogan Writing Competition themed: "Raise Your Voice, Make a Choice: End the Cycle of Sexual Harassment." The primary aim of the events was to promote awareness and encourage dialogue about the importance of standing against sexual harassment. It also gave students a platform to creatively express their thoughts on such a crucial social issue. The events witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various departments. Participants used colours, symbols, and powerful messages to communicate the urgency of ending sexual harassment. Posters were judged on creativity, visual impact, relevance to the theme, and clarity of message. Entries were evaluated based on creativity, clarity, originality, and relevance to the theme.

Employee Awareness Session on POSH Act, 2013 and UGC Regulations, 2015

The session aimed at sensitizing the teaching and non-teaching staff about workplace safety, legal frameworks, and the role of the Internal Committee in ensuring a respectful and inclusive environment. It was held on April 21, 2025. Prof Saurabh Dhingra, Co- Founder of POSHCA (an NGO empanelled with the Ministry of Women and Child Development) provided a clear explanation of the POSH Act and the UGC Regulations and emphasized the responsibilities of employers and the Internal Committee. She engaged the audience through real-life examples and case studies, which made the session more relatable and impactful. She highlighted the importance of awareness, sensitivity, and timely redressal in preventing workplace harassment.

Awards/Recognition

- Felicitated at the International Women’s Day Celebration with the honour – “In Honour and Recognition of Women for Significant Contribution to Nation Building”, by the Chief Minister of Delhi Smt. Rekha Gupta, at an event held at Pradhanmantri Sangrahalaya on 7th March 2025.
- Mentored the Echo Team, comprising of 6 students of different streams, which was awarded as the State Level Winner from Delhi under the ECHO Programme 2023-24 by WWF-India, and presented the project at the ECHO National Summit, held at WWF-India, Secretariat Office, on 8th July 2024.
- Special Recognition by the Faculty of Science, Department of Zoology, University of Delhi, for designing and drafting the curriculum for B.Sc (H) Zoology and B.Sc (P) Life Sciences under NEP 2020, as a member of the Committee of Courses constituted by the Faculty of Science, at an event held at Department of Zoology, University of Delhi on 6th September 2024.

Invited Speaker

- Guest Speaker at the International Women’s Day celebration on 7th March 2025, by Fiem Foundation at Pradhanmantri Sangrahalaya.
- Keynote speaker at the “International Symposium on Ciliate Biology 2025 (ISCB 2025)” held on February 06-07, 2025, at Acharya Narendra Dev College (University of Delhi), New Delhi, India.
- Resource Person- Workshop on “Bioinformatics- Tools and Techniques” for Research Scholars, PG and UG students at SBT, KIIT University, Bhubaneswar, Orissa, 12th-13th September 2024.
- Keynote speaker at the 8th International Conference of Indian Network for Soil Contamination Research (INSCR-2024) on ‘Exploring the Microbial World from Human Health to Environmental’ organised by INSCR, held at Conference Centre, UoD, Delhi, India from April 03-05, 2024.

Community Outreach

- Dr. Parminder Kaur went on an outreach program to various Govt. Senior Secondary Schools in villages of Himachal Pradesh, along with 5 students from the Zoology department, in an initiative by the INSA Outreach Program and University of Delhi Organized under the aegis of International Microbiology Literacy Initiative (IMiLI), Indian Network for Soil Contamination Research (INSCR), Federation of European Microbiological Societies (FEMS), International Society of Microbial Ecology (ISME) & International Union of Microbiological Societies (IUMS). The Outreach program aspired to inspire the students studying in schools of rural areas in district Hamirpur, to pursue higher education from esteemed institutes and to provide them with much needed academic and practical exposure.

Participations

ACTIVITIES: EXTRA-CURRICULAR SOCIETIES

Acrostic- The Poetry Society

Convenor: Dr. Smita Mishra

Acrostic was founded to provide a platform for artistic and poetic expression. As a hub for creativity, it has consistently nurtured budding writers and artists through engaging events and competitions.

Qafila'24

Acrostic successfully organized its annual flagship event, Qafila '24, on 12th and 13th November. The event hosted three inter-college poetry competitions: Hiraeth, an English poetry slam; Sunehe, a Punjabi poetry slam; and Shabdostav, a Hindi/Urdu poetry slam. The themes of these competitions did not restrict the participants creatively, allowing the participants to explore different styles and genres of poetry. The event was a huge success with an engaging participation from various colleges. Qafila was graced by Anubhav Tekwani, Ritwick Bhattacharjee, Dr. Amarnath, Dr Ved Mitr Shukl, Dr. Jasvinder Kaur and Dr. Amarjeet Kaur as judges and the winners were awarded prizes, along with certificates of appreciation.

Orientation

Acrostic hosted an open for all meeting to introduce the society to the freshers on a more intimate note, which saw huge participation throughout all the three years. It was followed by a photo walk activity and an impromptu poetry writing session. After the recruitment process, the selected members were addressed by the society's convenor and committee of professors on board, who expressed their interest in having keen artists on board.

Meetinofts

The Poetry Society conducts regular meetings on Mondays and Fridays to discuss and propagate shared love for poetry, and also engage in meaningful discussion. These meetings include reading circles, discussions on literary movements, workshops on poetic forms and techniques, activity meets, and open mic sessions. These include activities like blackout poetry, photo walks, etc. Acrostic kickstarted the session with a splendid meeting on Muktibodh, followed by Ocean Vuong's postmodern writing and a reading circle on 19th century's Edgar Allan Poe. The meeting on Kabir Das and war-crisis saw immense interest and discussion and the activity writing session encouraged creative writing. And understanding poetry through imagination.

Pixelated- Lashkara'25

As part of Lashkara'25, Acrostic – The Poetry Society – hosted Pixelated, a Multilingual poetry writing competition held on 3rd March, 2025. Conducted in English, Hindi, and Punjabi, the event invited participants to compose poetry inspired by images assigned through a number-based lottery system. Judged on content and performance, the event featured a distinguished panel including Dr. Smita Mishra, Miss Armeen Kaur, Mr. Venugopal, and Miss Kawaljeet Kaur. The event was anchored by society members Vedansh and Ayush and was graced by the presence of the society's committee teachers. Senior society members opened the event for each language: Punint for English, Nisha for Hindi, and Gagandeep for Punjabi. Participants responded to their visual prompts with a rich variety of themes—ranging from love, longing, and home, to the complexities of the self. Pixelated stood out for its unique format and its celebration of creativity across languages, leaving a lasting impression on both the audience and the participants.

Acrostic, the Poetry Society, envisions an inspiring year ahead with plans to host diverse workshops on poetic forms and notable poets, collaborate with literary societies to expand its outreach, and publish an annual anthology showcasing members' finest works. The society also aims to organize a theatre and expression-writing workshop led by distinguished faculty members of the college. Building on its rich legacy of fostering creative expression, Acrostic continues to cultivate a vibrant community where students explore their poetic voice, engage in literary dialogue, and grow alongside fellow enthusiasts.

Anhad- The Divinity Society

Convenor: Dr. Harbans Singh

SAMAGAM PRAKASH PURAB GURU GRANTH SAHIB JI - On September 5th, a special Samagam was held to celebrate the Prakash Purab of Guru Granth Sahib Ji, a significant event in the Sikh calendar. The day began with a spiritually enriching session led by Divinity students, who recited sacred hymns (shabads) from 10 AM to 12 PM, filling the atmosphere with reverence and devotion. The program was further honored by Bhai Sarabjeet Singh, the Hazoori Ragi from Darbar Sahib, Harmandir Sahib, whose soulful recitations deepened the spiritual experience. Key figures, including the Principal, Convenor, and teaching staff, attended, highlighting the event's significance. At 1 PM, the celebration featured an energetic Togh Ghatka performance, showcasing Sikh martial arts and historical valor. The day concluded with Guru Ka Langar, a communal meal that reinforced values of community and shared devotion. Overall, the Samagam was a resounding success, fostering unity and reflecting deep reverence for Guru Granth Sahib Ji.

SARAGARHI DAY - On 12th September 2024, the NCC Department commemorated Saragarhi Day with a meaningful event honoring the extraordinary valor of the soldiers who fought in the historic battle. The day began with the powerful phrase, "Surah so pehchaniye joh lade deen ke hait purza purza kat mare kabhun na chaade khet, " setting a reflective tone. The Anhad Society's soulful recitation of the shabad "Mere man sev safal har ghal" infused the occasion with spirituality. Esteemed dignitaries, including Principal Prof. Gurmohinder Singh and former ANO Major Dr. Gurinder Singh, graced the event, emphasizing its importance. The program featured speeches, performances, and rituals that celebrated the soldiers' courage and sacrifice, leaving attendees inspired and deeply appreciative of their legacy.

LITERARY TRANSLATION WORKSHOP - On October 10, 2024, the English and Punjabi departments jointly hosted a dynamic literary translation workshop, delving into the complexities of translating literature across cultures. The event began at 11:30 AM with a spiritually uplifting rendition of the shabad "Mere Man Sev Safal, " setting a reflective tone. Renowned keynote speakers Amarjeet Kaur (Amia Kunwar), Sunanda Mehta, and Meeran Dhandha Borwankar shared valuable insights on balancing technical challenges and creativity in literary translation, emphasizing the need to preserve cultural nuances. Participants engaged in interactive translation exercises, fostering creativity and skill development. The workshop highlighted the critical role of translation in preserving cultural heritage and promoting cross-cultural understanding, inspiring attendees to explore this vital field further.

GK-II COMPETITION - On October 20, 2024, our institution proudly secured the second position in the prestigious Gurmat Sangeet competition organized by the Dharam Singh Khurana Memorial Trust at Gurdwara Sri Guru Singh Sabha, Greater Kailash 2, New Delhi. Hosted in two rounds, the competition saw participation from esteemed teams like Singh Musical Academy and Guru Har Rai Sahib Sangeet Academy. Our Divinity Society, Anhad, captivated the audience with stellar performances of "Mai Soh Data Ik Hai Awar Nahi Koi" on October 18th and "Mere Man Sev Safal Har Ghal" on October 20th. Their mastery of raags and heartfelt delivery created a spiritually uplifting atmosphere, earning high praise from judges, including Manohar Singh Ji and Ustad Gurmeet Singh Ji. This achievement reflects the team's dedication, talent, and devotion, bringing pride to our institution and inspiring future excellence in Gurmat Sangeet.

AUDITIONS FOR TEAM 2024-2025 - On October 21, 2024, auditions were conducted with overwhelming participation from students eager to showcase their talent. The event witnessed an impressive turnout, reflecting the enthusiasm and passion among the student community. Participants from diverse backgrounds and disciplines brought their unique skills to the stage, creating an atmosphere of excitement and creativity. The judges, impressed by the high level of energy and commitment, faced the delightful challenge of selecting the most exceptional performers. The auditions not only highlighted the vibrant talent within the institution but also set the stage for future events brimming with promise and potential.

MATA SUNDRI ANNUAL COMPETITION - On October 23, 2024, the 47th annual Mata Sundri Competition celebrated the rich heritage of spiritual music, drawing participants from various institutions. Our college achieved remarkable success, securing 3rd place in Akharkari, 2nd in Bani Kanth, and 1st in declamation. The highlight was the stellar performance by Anhad, our Divinity Society, who captivated the audience with "Jap Man Har Har Naam Nidhan" in Mishrit Raag Prabhati Vibhaas Shabad. Their blend of technical finesse and emotional depth resonated deeply, earning them the prestigious first position. Esteemed judge Monohar Singh Ji lauded their dedication and artistry, making the moment even more special. This victory not only brought immense pride to the college but also underscored the importance of preserving spiritual traditions, inspiring future generations to cherish and celebrate this cultural legacy.

PRAKASH PURAB SRI GURU RAM DAS JI - The Prakash Purab of Sri Guru Ram Das Ji on October 25, 2024, was a heartfelt celebration of spirituality and community. The event featured soul-stirring Kirtan by the Divinity Society, insightful Gurmat Vichar discussions, and a mesmerizing Shabad Kirtan performance by Hazoori Ragi Bhai Nirmal Singh Ji, uplifting the spiritual ambiance. The Divinity Society students were also honored for their first-place victory in the Mata Sundri competition, with leaders encouraging them to balance academic success with spiritual growth. The celebration beautifully embodied faith, unity, and inspiration for all attendees.

TEDX ASTRA - On November 8, 2024, TEDx SGTBKC hosted Astra, an inspiring event on women empowerment. Anhad: The Divinity Society opened with a soulful rendition of the shabad "Satgur Nanak Pargateya," symbolizing enlightenment and transformation. This sacred hymn highlighted Guru Nanak's role in dispelling ignorance and illuminating the world, drawing a profound parallel to the event's theme. The shabad's message resonated deeply, emphasizing the transformative power of wisdom and the ability of women to inspire change, uplift communities, and shine brightly. This spiritually uplifting performance set the perfect tone for a day celebrating the strength and potential of women.

BAGHPAT SAMAGAM - On November 10, members of the society visited Baghpat, where they delved into the rich history of the area. They learned about its significance as a stop on the route where Bhai Rangreta Ji carried the sacred head (sis) of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji, resting there for a night. Immersed in the profound legacy of the place, the members concluded their visit with a heartfelt Kirtan, honoring the history and spirituality of this revered site.

GURUPURAB GURU NANAK DEV JI - On November 28, 2024, a special event was organized to celebrate Guru Nanak Dev Ji's Gurburab with great devotion and reverence. The program began with Nitnem recitation by the Fateh Society, creating a spiritual ambiance, followed by a soulful Kirtan that deeply moved the sangat. Adding to the significance of the day, the Student Union members took their oath after the Kirtan, marking their commitment to upholding the values of service and leadership. The event beautifully blended spirituality with a sense of responsibility, leaving a lasting impression on all attendees.

FOUNDER'S DAY - On December 5th, 2024, a special event was held to commemorate both Founder's Day and the Martyrdom of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji, known as 'Hind Ki Chadar.' The celebration began with the Fateh Society reciting the Panj Bani and was followed by a heartfelt recital of Shabads in honor of Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji, emphasizing his wisdom and sacrifice. The event also featured a soulful rendition of Shalok Mahala 9 and kirtan by Bhai Gurmeet Singh Ji Khalsa and Bhai Jagjit Singh Ji Babiha, further enriching the spiritual atmosphere. An essay competition on the history of Gurubani was also held, with prizes awarded to the winners. Mr. Kocchar shared a profound message, emphasizing the importance of prayer, satsangat, and spiritual closeness for true goodness. The event concluded with a Langar and a Gatka performance by the Tegh Society, honoring Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji's legacy of courage and resilience. It was a day of reflection, spiritual devotion, and community unity.

SHAHEEDI DIHARA - On December 26th, Shaheedi Dihara was solemnly observed to honor the martyrs of Sikh history, particularly the Sahibzaade and the countless Sikh warriors who gave their lives in resistance against the Mughals. The event, organized in collaboration with the Fateh Society, featured a soulful Kirtan session, followed by the recitation of Path (scriptural readings). An exhibition curated by the Fateh Society highlighted the bravery and sacrifices of these heroes, offering a poignant reminder of their unwavering commitment to faith and justice. The day served as a tribute to their legacy, inspiring reflection and reverence among all attendees.

Ankur-The Theatre Society

Convenor: Dr. Saheb Kaur

Ankur scheduled the orientation for 2024-25 and announced a street play titled “Chakravyuh” on August 27, addressing issues such as unemployment and the New Education Policy. This performance took place on September 5 at Jannat, within the college premises.

We also did a performance (flash mob) on anti-ragging (14 September 2024) stating the importance of a ragging-free campus, our performance highlighted the need for respect and unity among students.

On 28th September 2024, a workshop was conducted under the guidance of Akarsh Khurana, Indian director, writer and actor, son of actor Akash Khurana, who is critically acclaimed for writing and directing various shows. His notable works includes TVF Tripling, Yeh Meri Family, Mismatched and Krrish. Ankur conducted an engaging workshop with Anirudh Nair, faculty of DSM, bringing together members of Ankur and various other theatre societies of the Delhi University on 22nd and 23rd August 2024 .

We performed our adapted and translated play, “Right Left Right” based on Ajay Krishnan’s “Butter and Mashed Banana.” This play was showcased at NIT Kurukshetra (11 October) and Manav Rachna College (19 October), where we secured first place, earning Ankur a direct entry into the upcoming IIT Guwahati 2025 stage play competition. Additionally, we qualified for Mood Indigo after successfully passing the preliminary round at DTU on 13th October 2024 and we also secured third position in the Deshbandhu College event, Jashn-e-Theatre.”

On November 19 and 20, 2024, we performed our annual production, which featured Mahesh Dattani's Final Solutions. Ankur was fortunate to secure an opportunity for an online meeting with Mahesh Dattani, which provided valuable insights into the play and its characters. The play was directed by the thirdyear students - Archit Garg (BA Hons. Economics) and Sia Bindrani (B Sc Hons. Zoology).

In January 2025, Ankur started its process for Pratykash, the annual theatre fest, where various teams from the DU circuit will be invited for both stage and street plays. The event will be held during the month of March. Pratykash '25 was a two-day event held as part of the college’s annual fest, Lashkara. The event brought together various teams who participated in both stage plays and street plays. However, the event was non-competitive in nature, aiming to celebrate the art of theatre without the pressure of competition.

The street play segment took place on 3rd April 2025, while the stage play event was held on 5th April 2025. Teams showcased their creativity, passion, and storytelling abilities through impactful performances that addressed a range of social and emotional themes.

The event was graced by esteemed judges—Mr. Ashok Tiwari, Ms. Anannya Tripathyi and Ms. Sakhi Upadhyaya—who provided thoughtful insights and constructive feedback to the performers.

Their presence added value to the event, fostering a spirit of learning and artistic growth. Pratykash '25 served as a platform for students to express themselves freely and engage with a wider audience through meaningful theatre. It emphasized collaboration, expression, and the shared joy of performance, leaving a lasting impression on everyone involved.

Chalchitra - The Filmmaking Society

Convenor: Dr Guntasha Kaur Tuli

Chalchitra, SGTB Khalsa College's "Filmmaking-Society," is a vibrant group of cinema enthusiasts, who are intensely passionate about storytelling and filmmaking. Since its inception in 2021, Chalchitra has been a pillar of creative expression, providing students with an opportunity to explore and improve their skills in acting, directing, scriptwriting, cinematography, and editing. Some of the notable honours have been the following awards won by the Society across a range of cultural and media festivals:

Our in-house production Dichotomy received multiple accolades, including 1st positions at Netaji Subhas University of Technology and Ramanujan College, Best Cinematography at Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies, and special mentions at Delhi Technological University and College of Vocational Studies. Our in-house production Bhola-sa-Mann secured 1st positions at Shaheed Bhagat Singh College, Maharaja Agrasen College, and Shri Ram College of Commerce, and was officially selected for the Nivart Film Festival in New Delhi and a screening at St. Mary's College, Hyderabad.

Society Activities:

Chalchitra's calendar is packed with activities which reflect our commitment towards nurturing talent and celebrating the art of filmmaking:

- Workshops and Training: Regular sessions on cinematography, editing, acting, and storytelling are conducted by industry professionals and experienced alumni.
- In-House Productions: We produce award-winning short films, documentaries, and reels that provide hands-on experience to our members. For example, the Montage style was utilised to make a short film on our institution. Comprising of more than 400 clips, it covers diverse facets of the college and served as an introducing glimpse into SGTB Khalsa college for newly admitted students of the batch 2024-25.
- Annual Event – "Film-fair": Our flagship two-day event, held on October 18-19, 2024, featured film screenings, cosplay, open mic sessions, and cultural performances. Day 1 began with an Inauguration ceremony leading to a carnivalesque celebration of movies, mimicry, music, and medley. It bought the entire college community together. Day 2 bought film-enthusiasts under one roof in G-5 Room of the Science Block, which became a site of multiple movie screenings, and sharp and memorable interface with the renowned film-maker, Mr. Siddhartha Bedi.
- 'Chalchitra': The Film-Making Society of SGTB Khalsa organized its flagship event for this semester, "Rang-de-Cinema" (April 2, 2025). A short-listing was done out of 35 entries received for short films. The best 11 were screened in the Seminar Hall and ranged on complex and fascinating themes and aspects like ambition and greed, feminism, struggles of the marginalised, aesthetic and social crisis, urgency of cleaning of rivers, everyday tragedies of domestic and private nature or human-greed and jealousy. We also conducted screening of two of our own well-acclaimed in-house productions, Thin Line and Awake.
- Collaborations: We partnered with other college societies to broaden the scope and impact of our activities.
- Social Media Campaigns: We engaged our audience with creative content on Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn to maintain an active presence and attract talent. Through a range of students' efforts in building a film-making and film-appreciation community within and outside the college, Chalchitra has an action packed 2025 with the first in-house production, Awake, already under wraps, and planning of film-screening competition and tie-ups with other societies for meaningful collaborations and zeal towards conscience driven cinema, being the next step forward.

Confero-The MUN Society

Convenor: Dr. Jagdish Singh

Achievements in External MUNs

Confero won Best Delegation at four prestigious MUNs, including Sri Venkateswara College (University of Delhi), Daulat Ram College (University of Delhi), Quintessence MUN, and Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies, highlighting excellence in diplomacy and debate. Additionally, our members secured multiple Best Delegate, High Commendation, and Special Mention awards in various other MUN conferences.

Events & Activities Conducted in College

- Intra society Debate Competition: A thought-provoking debate on "The Role of Artificial Intelligence in Global Politics.
- Intra-society Youth Parliament: A simulation of the Indian Parliament where students engaged in policy discussions and legislative debates.
- Panel Discussion on Geopolitical Conflicts: Experts and students came together to discuss global tensions, including the impact of economic sanctions and diplomatic negotiations.
- MUN Training Sessions & Workshops: Conducted to mentor first-time MUN participants, equipping them with research and public speaking skills. Through these initiatives, Confero has not only strengthened its presence in the debating circuit but has also provided a platform for students to engage in meaningful discussions on contemporary issues.

CONFERO'S ANNUAL FLAGSHIP CONFERENCE 2025 held on 29-30th March, 2025

With over a decade of excellence, Confero has cemented its place as one of the leading MUN societies in Delhi and North India. In the academic year 2024–2025 alone, the society has proudly secured seven Best Delegation awards at prestigious institutions including Sri Venkateswara College, Jesus & Mary College, and Dyal Singh College. This marks one of its most successful inter-college campaigns to date. Home to a diverse group of around 55 students from various academic backgrounds—not limited to humanities—Confero thrives on inclusivity and interdisciplinary collaboration.

On the 29th and 30th of March 2025, Confero successfully hosted its 9th MUN Conference on campus, drawing over 350 delegates from across the country. The event featured a hybrid format with both physical and virtual participation, and hosted 10 committees, including UNGA-DISEC, UNCSW, AIPPM, International Press, and virtual committees such as UNHRC and UNEP. A significant highlight of this year's conference was the collaboration with esteemed organizations such as WWF (World Wide Fund for Nature), CYPAN (Commonwealth Youth Peace Ambassadors Network), the Commonwealth Nations, and NSDC (National Skill Development Corporation).

These partnerships elevated the conference's stature and outreach. More than 30 awards were presented to outstanding delegates who showcased exceptional diplomacy, negotiation skills, and political insight.

Debate and Discussion Society

Convenor: Dr. Tarun Kumar

The Debate and Discussion Society (DADS) is known for conducting stellar activities around the year to inculcate critical thinking, logical thinking and overall personality development. The session from 2024 – 25 has been an exceptional year for the society in terms of participations and achievements throughout various intra and inter debating events.

Highlights of the Year:

Introductory Sessions and recruitment: The year marked with freshers' excitement was met with meticulous attention and preparation. A help desk and registration desk were set up to ease out the process. The freshers were familiarized with the society and its activities. The introduction was followed by extensive rounds of selection to the society. The overwhelming response of the freshers has added a new spring in the society.

Orientation Session: Once the recruits were inducted into the society extensive rounds of basics of debating, competitions and debating circuit were introduced. The orientation included familiarization with the society structure, debating techniques and various formats included therein.

Introduction to Debating: Post introduction to formats like conventional debate, parliamentary debate, turncoat debate etc. the rigorous cycle of official sessions twice a week got kick started in which the theory was taught to be put into practice. Along with these regular sessions, knowledge sessions also took place which include a wide range of topics from narrative making, feminism to power and international relations.

Intra-College Debate Competition: Carrying forth the legacy of DADS, The Intra-College Debating Competition was organised. It includes participation from across departments in an exciting conventional debate competition. The event took place over two days and two rounds like topics of contemporary importance.

Logicia'25 (Inter College Debating competition): Logicia'25 our annual Asian parliamentary debate competition took place this year from 1st -3rd March 2025, A 3-Day Debating Tournament where participants from different colleges, debated on different themes of Feminism, politics, pop culture etc. Asian Parliamentary Debate (APD) format is the most prevalent format in Delhi Debating Circuit, as our society is representing our college in terms of participation in various colleges, we represented our college in organising our flagship competition, accessing the Debating Circuit.

Enactus

Convenor: Dr. Madhu

During this tenure, Enactus Khalsa successfully organized Vichar 6.0, our annual flagship event that brought together a vibrant mix of art, entrepreneurship, and social innovation. The event featured a dynamic lineup of celebrated artists such as Dr. Vegaas, Ekansh Taneja, Rajesh Yadav, Harsh Sharma Music, Nexus Band, Mayank Arya, and Ajitanshu, among others, who captivated the audience with their creative performances. Beyond the musical and artistic showcases, Vichar 6.0 also provided a platform for budding entrepreneurs and small businesses, as we invited stalls from various startups and other Enactus teams from across India. The event's spirit of collaboration and knowledge exchange was further enriched by the organization of two competitive events—Aarohan, a challenging case competition centered on the emergency service industry, and Aarambh, a social business plan competition designed to foster innovative ideas in social entrepreneurship. Each of these segments not only engaged participants in critical thinking and problem-solving but also highlighted the practical application of business acumen to real-world issues.

In addition to the flagship event, our tenure was marked by a series of impactful outreach initiatives and competitive successes. We conducted an awareness drive in Connaught Place, New Delhi, to promote our project Ehtiyaat, thereby reaching out to a diverse audience and creating meaningful community connections. Our teams went on to win competitions at prestigious institutions including IITD, DTU, IHE, ARSD, Kalindi, and Symbiosis, further establishing our reputation for excellence. To ensure a grassroots impact, we organized field visits to key areas such as Azadpur, Rajouri Garden, and Rohini, where we spread awareness about our projects and engaged directly with local communities. Additionally, our representation at a B-plan competition at IIT Roorkee and the setting up of stalls at renowned educational institutions like Vivekananda College and Bennett University underscored our commitment to nurturing future leaders. We also proudly collaborated with a prestigious organization, Impulse, which added further credibility and support to our initiatives, making this tenure a remarkable blend of creativity, competition, and community engagement.

Etram- The Western Dance Society

Convenor: Ms. Poonam Bedi

WORKSHOP

The Western Dance Society of our college held its inaugural workshop, featuring the song 'Naina' by Diljit Dosanjh. This session attracted an enthusiastic crowd of about 25-30 participants, including teachers who joined in the fun.

OFFLINE AUDITIONS

Our dance society held its first offline auditions, drawing a vibrant crowd of passionate dancers excited to showcase their skills. Students from diverse backgrounds brought their unique styles, filling the room with creativity and energy. The dancers were evaluated keeping in view their talent, rhythm, and originality.

OFFLINE TEAM BONDING SESSION

Our dance society held an offline team bonding session, bringing together members in a fun setting to strengthen connections. The session included a mix of games, interactive activities, and open discussions, giving everyone a chance to share their stories and learn and know more about each other. By the end, the group felt more like a family, ready to tackle future challenges and perform together with renewed unity and enthusiasm.

LA FIESTA- A COLLABORATION WITH STROKES

Etram collaborated with STROKES- Fine Arts Society for a vibrant, Spanish-themed event that brought the essence of Spain's culture to life. The event was filled with rich colors, passionate art displays, and energetic music, setting the perfect stage for our team's 5-minute performance. We embraced the theme with choreography inspired by traditional Spanish styles, adding Spanish movements and dramatic flair to resonate with the event's spirit.

RAUNAK-E-FRESHERS PERFORMANCE

Our dance society also got an incredible opportunity to perform at the official freshers' event of our college, which was hosted for the very first time. The atmosphere was electric and our team delivered a high-energy performance lasting 4 to 4.5 minutes, showcasing a mix of styles that resonated with the vibrancy of the occasion. The choreography was crafted to not only entertain but also welcome the freshers to the college community. Performing at such a landmark event was an honor for our society, as it allowed us to set the tone for the evening and make a lasting impression on the new batch. The response from the crowd was overwhelmingly positive.

MERAKI 2025

The Western Dance Society of our college successfully organized its annual cultural event, Meraki, a vibrant celebration of talent, creativity, and the spirit of dance. The event brought together the top 12 college dance teams from across Delhi, who showcased their passion and excellence through energetic and captivating performances. Team UHC emerged as the winner, while Team Spardha secured the second position with an impressive performance. Meraki not only celebrated the art of dance but also fostered a spirit of collaboration, leaving a lasting impact on everyone present.

Eco-Clan- The Eco Club

Convenor: Dr. Anjana Sagar

Ecoclan, The Eco-Club of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College promotes the participation of students with the aim to educate them about the prevailing environmental conditions, the causes of environment deterioration, along with the understanding of sustainable conservation of nature. During the academic year 2024-2025, the club intensified its efforts to address pressing ecological issues through a blend of education, action, and advocacy.

Key initiatives included frequent tree plantation drives across the campus, promoting green cover, and an E-Waste Collection Drive to responsibly manage electronic waste. Highlighting the year was the celebration of World Ozone Day 2024 on 18th September, featuring a special lecture by Prof. Dinabandhu Sahoo, Head, Department of Botany, University of Delhi. His insightful talk on ozone layer depletion and sustainable solutions captivated over 150 attendees, including students and faculty. Post-lecture, participants took the “Environment Protection Pledge”, committing to eco-friendly practices, and engaged in a sapling plantation drive on campus.

Ecoclan also organized inter and intra-college competitions, sparking creativity and awareness on conservation themes. These activities not only educated the college community about environmental challenges but also inspired actionable steps toward sustainability.

Through its dynamic programs, Ecoclan continues to empower individuals to become proactive stewards of nature, aligning with global efforts to combat climate change and biodiversity loss. The club's dedication to blending knowledge with action sets a commendable example for environmental advocacy in academic spaces.

FinWisory-The High Finance Society

Convenor: Dr. Kamaldeep Kaur

FinWisory, the High Finance Society of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, University of Delhi, is a student-led initiative focused on careers in Investment Banking, Venture Capital, Private Equity, and Financial Consulting. Over the past three years, it has been committed to developing financial acumen and nurturing future leaders through insightful conversations, skill-building sessions, and awareness-enhancing activities. The society functions through four core departments—Social Outreach, Research & Articulation, Technical Resources, and Marketing & Sponsorship—alongside two specialized verticals: the Investment Board and Finance Talks. Its wide-ranging initiatives include inter-college competitions, debates, webinars, workshops, and networking events, offering a dynamic platform for students to deepen their financial expertise and industry readiness.

Recruitment

FinWisory launched its 2024–25 session with an Official Information Desk on 3rd September 2024 at the Jannat area of the college, where freshers were introduced to the society's vision through interactive discussions and a fun Finance Riddle Game. On 19th September, a Pre-Recruitment Orientation drew over 100 students across streams and featured an overview of the society's structure, goals, and annual plan, followed by FinHunt, a finance-themed treasure hunt with puzzles, riddles, and QR codes. The Post-Recruitment Induction held on 14th October officially welcomed the new analysts, familiarizing them with departmental functions and the probation structure. A notable highlight was FinWisory's selection for Commerce League 2.0, with six analysts set to represent the society.

Speaker Session

On 27th November 2024, FinWisory organized its flagship event, FinOrate 2.0: The Finance Dialogue. Esteemed industry professionals like Mr. Khalid Wani, Mr. Rahul Sharma, and Ms. Vandana Tolani shared insights on evolving trends, career strategies, and the future of finance. With over 100 participants, the session provided a valuable opportunity for networking and knowledge exchange.

Competitions & Events

On 28th February 2025, FinWisory hosted Finstock 1.0, a competitive finance event featuring:

- Decode Growth – Participants presented analyses of company growth trajectories post-IPO, followed by Q&A.
- Mock Trade Challenge – Participants engaged in simulated trading using the StockGro app to showcase their market strategy skills.

The competition was judged by Professor T. Venugopalan and Dr. Bunny Singh Bhatia. With 30+ participants, winners received cash prizes worth ₹4000 and certificates.

Learning Sessions

FinWisory launched its FinLearn Series in March 2025—an initiative aimed at educating students about high finance from scratch through speaker-led sessions. The series kicked off with an insightful online session on 18th March 2025, featuring Mr. Jaskirat Singh Gujral, founder of Financial Adda Group. With over 50 participants, the session covered key topics such as financial literacy, basics of the stock market, mutual funds, investing tips, and career opportunities in finance. FinWisory continues to conduct such sessions under the FinLearn Series, exploring a wide array of financial topics to equip students with practical knowledge and industry exposure.

College Fest Participation

As part of Lashkara '25, FinWisory conducted a Valuation Finopoly – The Investment Battle! on 3rd April 2025, a Monopoly-inspired investment game where teams competed to build the most valuable portfolio. Alongside this, interactive and fun stalls like "Guess the Meme," "Read the Colours," and "Cube Solve" were set up to boost student engagement.

The event, held under the guidance of Dr. Kamaldeep Kaur, concluded with cash prizes and participation certificates for winners.

As FinWisory continues its journey, it remains committed to empowering students, fostering financial acumen, and creating opportunities for professional growth.

Girls Common Room Committee

Convenor: Dr. Roopam Jasmeet Kaur

With the commencement of the academic session, the GCR Committee initiated a volunteer enrolment drive through Google Forms, successfully registering several enthusiastic girl students. Following this, office bearers were elected to lead the committee's activities. On 18th February 2025, the committee organized "I Am Unstoppable", an extempore speech competition exclusively for girl students, fostering confidence and public speaking skills. Additionally, a proposal for the renovation of the Girls' Common Room (GCR) has been formally submitted to the Principal, aiming to improve facilities and create a more comfortable space for students.

Ignite- The Placement cell

Convenor: Dr. Bibhu Prasad Sahu

This academic year, the Placement Cell achieved notable success in securing diverse career opportunities for students through strengthened industry engagement and active participation from leading recruiters. We were proud to host renowned companies such as KPMG, Deloitte, TresVista, WTW, L.E.K. Consulting, RSM, PwC, EY, Accenture, Zomato, Snapdeal, The Times of India, D.E. Shaw & Co., among many others. Their participation reflects the growing reputation of our institution as a hub for talent.

Key Highlights:

- 70+ students from our college have been successfully placed in reputed organizations so far.
- The academic year also saw challenges, particularly due to the introduction of the 4-year undergraduate program under the University of Delhi, which created some confusion among students regarding placements and eligibility.
- The placement season is still ongoing, and we anticipate more students securing positions in the coming weeks.
- In addition to final placements, we extended our focus on internships to ensure holistic student development. Over 100 companies were invited to offer internship opportunities.
- More than 500 students from our college and other institutions benefitted through our internship drives and collaborative placement activities.

Upcoming Initiatives:

Looking ahead, we are excited to announce our plans for the next academic session, which include:

- Offline Job & Internship Fair to provide students with direct interaction opportunities with recruiters.
- CEO Conference to be hosted at SGTB Khalsa College, aimed at fostering leadership insights and industry-academia dialogue.

The Placement Cell remains committed to guiding students in their career journeys and enhancing the professional footprint of our institution.

Khalsa Street: Finance And Investment Cell

Convenor: Dr. Bibhu Prasad Sahoo

Recruitment

Khalsa Street set up a stall in Jannat to interact with freshers and explain the society's workings. Each candidate was asked five questions on market news and finance basics and encouraged to discuss their favorite stocks. This year, 100+ applications were received, out of which the best 30 candidates were selected through a three-phase recruitment process: application, assignment submission, and interview. Candidates submitted a detailed industry and stock analysis, covering competitor analysis, share price trends, and SWOT analysis. Shortlisted candidates were interviewed based on their knowledge of finance, accounting, economics, and market trends.

Orientation

The 30 selected members were introduced to the society's structure, previous events, and upcoming plans. A Treasure Hunt was organized, where members solved finance-related clues to reach the final reward.

Skill Enhancement Session

To develop the skills of new recruits, senior members conducted six webinars on:

- Excel & Financial Report-Making using Screener
- Fundamental & Technical Analysis
- Marketing & Operations

These sessions ensured members stayed updated on industry-relevant skills. Assignments were given for hands-on experience, encouraging active participation and discussion.

IPO Investment

An IPO investment group was formed to educate members on IPO strategies, conduct in-depth research, and pool funds for strategic investing. The group applied stag investing strategies, ensuring informed decision-making and risk management.

Newsletters & One Pagers

Khalsa Street regularly publishes one-pager reports on various companies, providing concise yet insightful analysis on their financials, market position, and growth prospects. Additionally, the society releases newsletters, such as the recent one on Zepto's IPO, covering key business developments, industry trends, and investment insights to keep members informed and engaged.

Speaker Session

On January 29, 2025, Khalsa Street, along with RAAH - The Business Economics Society, hosted a seminar on "The Evolving Landscape of Financial Markets and Derivative Strategies." Dr. Dinesh Jaisinghani, faculty at Crown Institute of Higher Education, Canberra, led the session, attended by 60 participants. The discussion covered risk management, market dynamics, and investment strategies, concluding with an engaging Q&A session.

Analyst Arena – Equity Research Challenge

On February 21, 2025, Khalsa Street hosted the first Equity Research Challenge – Analyst Arena, where 6-8 teams presented their research on stocks from sunrise sectors like AI and green technology.

Judged by Mr. Piyush Kumar and other experts in the field of equity research, teams were evaluated on financial analysis, industry insights, and investment recommendations. The event provided a valuable platform for students to showcase research skills and gain practical exposure.

180 Degrees Consulting

Convenor: Dr Jasdeep Kaur

In the past one year, 180 Degrees Consulting (180DC), SGTB Khalsa College, has achieved significant milestones in empowering students and bridging the gap between theory and real-world consulting.

- A major highlight was the launch of CaseCrux, our annual case book, designed to equip aspiring consultants with essential frameworks, insights, and real-life case studies. This resource has prepared by our members for case competitions and consulting challenges.
- We also successfully conducted the Consultant Accelerator Program, featuring three expert-led sessions on strategy, business analysis, and industry insights. These sessions provided valuable exposure to real-world consulting scenarios, enhancing our members' problem-solving skills.
- Additionally, our society undertook two impactful consulting projects. With Yellow Squash, a healthcare startup, we developed a comprehensive data room, created financial projections, and facilitated investor outreach. Our collaboration with SWAN, a social enterprise focused on workforce empowerment, involved designing training programs and counselling sessions to promote skill development, education, and sustainable economic growth.
- APEX 180, annual flagship event- A key milestone was the successful execution of APEX 180, our annual flagship event, featuring three competitions—Caseniti 2.0, C-Suite 1.0, and Synergy 1.0. These events tested participants' analytical, managerial, and networking skills, drawing enthusiastic participation from top colleges nationwide. APEX 180 fostered strategic thinking and peer learning, reinforcing our commitment to experiential learning and professional growth. Looking ahead, we aim to expand its scale and impact for an even more enriching experience.

Through these initiatives, 180DC SGTB Khalsa continues to drive excellence, innovation, and social impact. As we move forward, we remain committed to fostering a dynamic learning environment and making meaningful contributions to the consulting landscape.

Pinhole- The Photography Society

The society also covered a variety of cultural, academic, and artistic events of college, ranging from heritage walks to film festivals, seminars, and fresher's events and capturing moments of creativity, learning, and celebration.

We also bring laurels to the college by securing 3rd position in the On-Spot Photography Competition at Beyond the Lens, organized by the Computer Science Department of Miranda House. Our new recruit Vishal won 3rd position in BCAS Clickerati competition.

The Society organized its flagship event, Curiosity '25, on 3rd April 2025. This highly anticipated affair was a fusion of creativity, spontaneity, and artistic celebration, comprising a live on-spot photography competition and a thoughtfully curated photography exhibition.

The collective effort reflected not only technical expertise but also a deep understanding of storytelling through visuals. Each photograph sparked dialogue, stirred emotions, and celebrated the human connection with the world around us.

Rotaract Club

Convenor: Dr. Rupali Bhalla Mathur

The Rotaract Club of SGTB Khalsa college has been working continuously ever since its establishment last year. This year has been productive and we have had so many meaningful events under every department of our club.

Community Service Department

Our work began with Project Parivartan, where we educated school students and raised awareness about women's safety. On Global Roti Day, we organized an impactful 11 km food distribution drive from Kashmere Gate to Arts Faculty, benefiting countless individuals. Through Project Prakriti, we partnered with leading organizations to promote environmental sustainability by planting trees. The heartfelt Pawsitive Time adoption drive found loving homes for many dogs. Project Arogya addressed health concerns by providing medical support and resources, while Project Hope raised funds for charity and brought comfort to old-age home residents. Pages of Hope enhanced access to education with a large-scale book donation drive, while The Period Dignity Project provided sanitary pads and broke stigmas around menstrual health. On World Adoption Day, our campus-wide campaign raised awareness about child adoption, while our celebration of Girl Child Day at My Angels Academy inspired young minds. The massive Project Sahay drive collected and distributed clothes to families in need, reinforcing our commitment to community welfare.

Professional Development Department

We prepared future leaders through Project Parambh, which taught cognitive and aptitude skills to students. The CAT Ace Master Class, in collaboration with Career Launcher, provided top-notch career guidance. A seminar on leadership and networking equipped our members with vital skills for professional success. Additionally, vocational training programs under Rotary's mentorship gave our members industry-specific expertise.

International Relations Department

This year, we have had a historic partnership with Sri Lankan delegates. A formal letterhead exchange with them opened doors for joint projects, setting the stage for impactful future collaborations. Additionally, we partnered with five prominent NGOs to align with their causes, paving the way for impactful joint initiatives. We have exchanged formal letterheads with three more international clubs, expanding our network and reputation on a global scale. We also hosted delegates of rotary in our installation ceremony earlier this year, which met the teachers and had a meeting with the principal to discuss future ventures. Our efforts have strengthened our position as a global force within the Rotaract community and our college as the potential institution to host big rotary events . We are partnering with various rotary clubs to have a grand joined venture this woman's day.

Club Service Department

With a perfect mix of learning and camaraderie, we organized Virasat-e-Dilli, a cultural and educational trip. We have organised frequent outings and recreational events, with this we are participating in the annual sports event of rotary international Along with all these, there are so many events which are being organised after the submission of this report one of the grand one is already in planning and about to be executed.

Strokes - The Fine Arts Society

Convenor: Dr. Paramjeet Kaur

The Fine Arts Society of SGTB Khalsa College, organized a graphics workshop with the primary focus on explaining Canva and its various uses. They regularly conducted caricature workshops with the aim of developing caricature skills into the new recruits. Strokes aims to showcase the artistic talents of its members in their events through a central exhibition, which serves as the main attraction. One such event was La Fiesta. These exhibitions highlight a "Recreation of famous paintings by Indian artists". To foster encouragement and promote learning in art, the society organized a meet-up at Hauz Khas. VIRASAT'25, a vibrant celebration of India's rich cultural heritage, bringing together the colors, traditions, and flavors of our diverse history in one unforgettable event. The society organized its annual event, 'Mirage' on 3rd April 2025 as part of the college's cultural fest, Lashkara'25. An open-themed art exhibition proudly showcased the unique styles and talents of all the society members. Two workshops of watercolor painting and caricature drawing was conducted by the members themselves.

Swarang- The Music Society

Convenor: Dr. Ruchi Kaur

Swarang, the music society of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, is a vibrant collective of talented musicians dedicated to the pursuit of musical excellence. Known for its dynamic performances and competitive success, the society has participated in over 30 competitions across Delhi University and other prestigious platforms, securing victories in more than 15 of them. Their achievements span various categories, including solo, duet, and choir competitions, highlighting the versatility and dedication of their members.

Swarang's journey is marked not only by their competitive triumphs but also by their recognition at significant national events. The society had the honor of performing at India Gate on National Constitution Day, organized by the Cultural and Sports Ministry, where their music became a part of the national celebrations, resonating with the patriotic spirit of the day. Another proud moment came when they performed at the Shaheed Bhagat Singh Antarrashtriya Gaurav Ratna Awards 2025, an event that honored outstanding contributions to society. Their participation in such government-organized events showcases their growing stature and the deep impact of their musical artistry.

Beyond performances and competitions, Swarang has also taken the initiative to contribute to the cultural landscape of their college. In 2025, they successfully organized Mridang'25, a musical extravaganza that brought together talented performers from various institutions. The event was a grand success, fostering a spirit of collaboration and appreciation for different musical forms. Mridang'25 not only provided a platform for emerging artists but also strengthened Swarang's reputation as a leading music society within the university.

What sets Swarang apart is its unwavering commitment to musical excellence and innovation. The members continuously refine their skills, exploring different genres and styles while staying true to their roots. Whether it's Indian classical, contemporary fusion, or Western harmonies, Swarang has mastered the art of delivering mesmerizing performances. Their success is built on the collective dedication of their vocalists, instrumentalists, and composers, who work tirelessly to maintain the society's high standards.

With every passing year, Swarang continues to elevate its legacy, setting new benchmarks in collegiate music. Their journey is not just about winning competitions but about creating a space where music thrives and inspires. As they move forward, Swarang remains committed to excellence, ensuring that their melodies leave an everlasting impact wherever they perform.

TEDx

Convenor: Mr. Ritwick Bhattacharjee

Introduction

Over the past year, the TEDx Society of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College has flourished under the exceptional leadership of our esteemed Convenor, Mr. Ritwick Bhattacharjee. This annual report highlights the society's key accomplishments, initiatives, and the profound impact we have made. Our dedication to promoting thought-provoking ideas remains unwavering, and we have made remarkable progress in engaging our community, nurturing intellectual discourse, and presenting groundbreaking perspectives.

Orientation

TEDxSGTBKC conducted an offline orientation session on 5th September. It was meticulously planned by the members of the society, providing insights into the structure and functions of the society. The major goal of the session was to enlighten the potential recruits with the mission and activities undertaken by the society. It was held in an interactive manner so as to engage the freshers and make it productive to an extent possible. The floor was eventually opened for questions to the young minds.

Furthermore, an online orientation session was conducted too by the society members for those who could not make it to the offline session. The society, briefly gave the insights into TEDxSGTBKC as a society with the help of a PowerPoint presentation which made the session even more fathomable for the recruits. Overall, the orientation session of the society was a success as the society holds the record of having the maximum number of members in the college.

Recruitment

The recruitment process of the TEDxSGTBKC Society is designed to identify and onboard talented individuals who align with the society's vision of spreading impactful ideas. The process begins with an initial form-filling stage, where interested candidates submit their applications through Google Forms, detailing their skills, experiences, and motivations for joining. This is followed by the Group Discussion round, where applicants are assessed on their communication abilities, teamwork, and problem-solving skills. To challenge their critical thinking, the core team presents them with a hypothetical crisis scenario, such as logistical issues or last-minute speaker cancellations, to evaluate their ability to navigate real-world event challenges effectively.

Candidates who successfully clear the group discussion move on to the Personal Interview stage, where their leadership potential, creativity, and dedication are thoroughly assessed. This one-on-one interaction allows the team to gain deeper insights into each candidate's capabilities and passion for TEDx initiatives. Those who pass this phase enter a probation period, where they work closely with the team on ongoing projects to demonstrate their commitment and ability to contribute meaningfully. This structured and rigorous selection process ensures that only the most dedicated and innovative individuals become part of TEDxSGTBKC, fostering a community of thinkers and changemakers.

Women's event: "ASTRA" (8th November 2024)

In a historic first, SGTB Khalsa College proudly hosted its inaugural TEDxWomen event, "Astra," a celebration of resilience, creativity, and the unparalleled strength of women. Inspired by the divine weapons of mythology, the theme symbolized the unique power every woman possesses to drive change and leave a lasting impact. The report encapsulates the strides we've made in fostering a culture of innovation and inspiration within and beyond SGTB Khalsa College. Commencing at 9:30 am, the event unfolded with a wide array of speakers, performers, and guests who contributed to a day of motivation, introspection, and conceptual exploration.

The event featured a stellar lineup of speakers, each embodying the essence of an "Astra." Ms. Dakshita Das, a seasoned bureaucrat, exemplified breaking barriers in public service, while Swarnima Bhattacharya, co-founder of Gytree, delivered compelling insights into the future of women's health. Misha Sarawal, artist and media personality, captivated the audience with her reflections on creativity as a catalyst for empowerment.

Adding a poetic dimension, Mahima Dayal Mathur (Bawari Basanti) mesmerized the audience with her philosophical music, offering a lyrical exploration of self and resilience. The day was further elevated by a stirring performance from Suhani Tyagi, whose soulful melodies resonated as anthems of connection and courage.

Gitanjali Surendran, a renowned historian and academic, shared profound perspectives on modern South Asian history and gender dynamics. Lastly, Shiwani Pawar, an emotional well-being coach and best-selling author, inspired with her transformative journey of healing and self-love.

TEDxSGTBKC's Women's Event: "ASTRA" transcended the bounds of a mere event, igniting a movement of bold ideas and sparking conversations destined to echo far beyond the college walls.

TEDxSGTBKC Talks

The TEDx Women event at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, Delhi University, on November 8th, 2024, brought together a remarkable lineup of speakers, artists, and performers, all under the theme Astra. This theme celebrated the valiant spirit of women as warriors in every aspect of their lives.

Banner Drop

The announcement of our Flagship event was nothing short of spectacular. A renowned Musical Band was called to perform on the day of the official Freshers on behalf of TEDxSGTBKC. The event took place in the Basketball Court. A huge banner was dropped from the top of the generator shed, unveiling “SEHAR” (TEDxSGTBKC 2.0). This was a powerful and courageous way of displaying what is to come. The banner dropping was met with loads of cheers and claps.

Tegh - The Gatka Society

Convenor: Dr. Harbans Singh

The Gatka Society of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, fondly known as TEGH, has had a truly remarkable year. With unwavering dedication and a deep passion for the traditional Sikh martial art of Gatka, the team has left an indelible mark through its performances in competitions, cultural festivities, and community events.

The year began on a high note with strong showings at major competitions. At the 9th Delhi State Gatka Competition held at Talkatora Stadium in August 2024, the team made its presence felt with multiple podium finishes across various categories. Following that, the society took part in the 8th National Gatka Championship, held in Sangrur, Punjab. This prestigious event saw the team rise to the challenge, delivering standout performances and earning accolades in both individual and team events. Most recently, the team proudly represented the college at the 13th Inter College Competition, hosted on home ground in March 2025. Once again, they showcased their skills and commitment, earning praise for their efforts and spirit.

Beyond the competitive circuit, the Gatka Society was also deeply involved in several cultural and religious celebrations. The team gave a rousing performance during the 78th Independence Day ceremony, organized by the National Cadet Corps and National Services Scheme at the college. Their powerful display of martial prowess infused the event with energy and patriotic fervor.

Throughout the year, TEGH also participated in multiple Samagams celebrating important Sikh Gurpurabs and College Founder’s Day. Whether it was the “Pehla Prakash Purab of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji,” “Prakash Purab of Sri Guru Ramdas Sahib Ji,” or the “Shaheedi Diwas of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji,” the team’s performances added a spiritual depth and cultural richness to each occasion. A special highlight was the team’s exhilarating appearance at Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce in September 2024, where the audience was thoroughly impressed and moved by their performance.

Adding to their outreach efforts, TEGH performed at the Kids Carnival at Indira Gandhi Stadium in November 2024, mesmerizing younger audiences with their energetic and captivating act. In March 2025, the team took part in the Fit India Carnival held at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, where they displayed their Shastar Vidya techniques with great finesse, promoting both fitness and tradition.

The society also engaged in community service and sewa. In September 2024, members came together to clean and organize the Gatka room and Shastar, demonstrating reverence and responsibility towards their martial heritage. Their involvement in Nagar Kirtans across Delhi, including events in Rohini, further showcased their spiritual commitment, as they performed to the rhythm of kirtan, contributing to the sacred atmosphere of these processions. In summary, Tegh – The Gatka Society has had a vibrant and successful year. With each performance, they not only honed their skills but also carried forward the rich legacy of Sikh martial tradition, representing the college with pride, grace, and unwavering discipline.

Teghpreneurs-The Entrepreneurship Cell

Convenor: Dr. Mansi Bansal

With the aim of nurturing an entrepreneurial culture, Teghpreneurs, The Entrepreneurship Cell of SGTB Khalsa College has successfully laid its foundation in 2021. It is a student - driven and faculty guided cell that helps young minds to bring forward their ideas and execute them into fully functioning startups.

Orientation Session

The Teghpreneurs Orientation session was an exciting event designed to introduce new students to the world of entrepreneurship and the activities of the Entrepreneurship Cell (E Cell) at SGTB Khalsa College. The session provided new recruiters with an overview of Teghpreneurs' mission, emphasizing its commitment to fostering a culture of innovation, creativity, and collaboration among young minds.

Chai Pe Charcha

The "Chai pe Charcha" session hosted by Teghpreneurs offered a relaxed yet inspiring environment for students to discuss and explore entrepreneurship over a cup of tea. This informal event aimed to break the ice, allowing attendees to connect with each other and the E Cell team, sparking conversations on startup ideas, challenges in the business world, and career aspirations. Through this initiative, Teghpreneurs provided a space where students could openly share their thoughts, fostering a culture of open dialogue and peer learning.

Learning Session

The Teghpreneurs Learning Session was an interactive event aimed at providing students with foundational knowledge in entrepreneurship and business. Designed to be educational and engaging, this session covered essential concepts such as business planning, idea validation, and market analysis, giving students a practical framework for exploring their entrepreneurial ambitions.

Webinar

The E Cell at SGTB Khalsa College hosted an online webinar in collaboration with the International School of Business & Media (ISB&M) as part of a Student Development Program. The session, titled "Introduction to New Concepts like Digital Marketing, " was conducted by Dr. Rajeswari Saha, an experienced educator and development professional with over 10 years of experience in the field.

Founder of The Year 4.0

Teghpreneurs hosted the final presentation round of three-phase case study competition, which comprises a Quiz Round, Case Submission Round, and the culminating Final Presentation Round. Throughout the competition participants have tackled various challenges, starting with a quiz to test their foundational knowledge, followed by the submission of detailed case studies that addressed real-world business problems.

Vastram - The Sartorial Society

Convenor: Ms. Armeen Kaur Ahuja

The Sartorial Society visited a Denim Exhibition in Dwarka, where they saw plastic PET bottles being transformed into yarn for denim fabric. From holding a shoot showcasing postcolonial fashion from the 50s and 60s to hosting a seminar featuring industry experts, Akshay Pundir and Dr. Shraddha Chadha, Vastram left no stone unturned to leave an imprint of its own. A workshop on Phulkari embroidery was conducted by Padma Shree awardee Dr. Lajwanti, on 22nd and 23rd October, 2024. She guided students through the techniques of embroidery and stamping.

Vastram also collaborated with the Fine Arts Society, Strokes, for an event titled 'La Fiesta'. The content head of Vastram held a workshop to teach its members how to use Canva for creating graphics. The society launched its spring collection 'Falgun' under Nargis as a vibrant and memorable part of Lashkara, 2025.

ACTIVITIES - ACADEMIC SOCIETIES

Aakriti - The Zoology Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Radhika Warikoo

Student Election

The annual student election of the Zoological Society was held on September 9th, 2024, attracting a diverse group of students and faculty members dedicated to promoting the study and appreciation of zoology. The election process was conducted transparently, utilizing a secret ballot system to ensure fairness. Students were encouraged to participate actively, with over 150 members casting their votes.

Shivam Katiyar emerged as the new President, with his campaign focused on increasing student involvement in collaborative opportunities. Nishu Kumar was elected Vice President, while Jia Kaur secured the positions of Joint Secretary and Avleen Kaur for the Treasurer and Ishmeeta Kaur appointed as the General Secretary respectively.

World Animal Day Celebration

World Animal Day, observed annually on October 4th, serves as a global platform to raise awareness about animal welfare and advocate for the protection of animals. To mark this occasion, Aakriti - The Zoological Society organized two impactful events: a Debate Competition and a Poster Making Competition. These activities were designed to educate participants about animal rights while fostering creativity, critical thinking, and informed discourse on wildlife conservation. The Debate Competition attracted participants from various schools and colleges. The theme for the debate was: "This house believes that interventions by private organizations in wildlife conservation, such as Vantara in Namibia, can undermine local government decisions and sovereignty." The Poster Making Competition was held alongside the debate, providing participants with a platform to visually express their advocacy for wildlife conservation. The theme of the competition was: "The World is Theirs Too."

Cancer Day Celebration

On 4th February 2025, the Aakriti Society successfully conducted a Cancer Awareness Drive to educate and inspire students about the importance of cancer prevention and early detection. The event saw enthusiastic participation from over 50+ students, who actively engaged in raising awareness through various activities. The drive commenced with a march around the college campus, where students raised their voices against cancer through impactful slogans and chants. The energy and determination displayed by the participants helped spread the message of awareness and the significance of early diagnosis. In addition to the march, we organized a poster-making competition, allowing students to creatively express their thoughts and perspectives on cancer awareness.

Bioescape 2025

On April 5, 2025, the Aakriti Society successfully hosted its annual flagship event. This year's theme, "Life in the Wild", brought an exciting blend of intellect, physical challenge, and problem-solving, engaging participants in a dynamic and immersive experience. The event drew enthusiastic participation from both home college students and several other reputed institutions, including Kirori Mal College (KMC) and Ramjas College, creating a vibrant and competitive atmosphere. The competition unfolded over three thrilling rounds, each uniquely designed to test a different aspect of the participants' capabilities.

Aavriti: The Electronics Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Nirupama Kapoor

Educational trip to National Physical Laboratory: Department of Electronics arranged an educational visit for the students to National Physical Laboratory (NPL), New Delhi on 1st October 2024. There the students were educated about cryogenics (liquid nitrogen and helium plants) used to maintain extremely low temperatures in experimental setups. They also got the chance to visit a fluid flow calibration laboratory where they learned how flow meters are calibrated. In the Carbon division of NPL, students saw different products made up of carbon fibres and a polymer matrix, used in applications requiring high strength and low weight. Students were also educated about different types of solar cells in the Photovoltaic labs of NPL. They saw sophisticated systems used to dope Si and prepare thin film solar cell structures. At the end, the students were educated about the Scanning Electron Microscope used to study nano structures.

Seminar on Digital Signal Processing: A seminar on "Applications of Digital Signal Processing in manipulating Audio Signals" was organized in the department on 1 Feb 2025. It was conducted by one of our alumni, Mr. Tarun Thakur, currently working in the software industry. The students were made aware of the various methods by which audio signals can be manipulated using Discrete Fourier Transform algorithms. Students found it very informative and requested the presenter to conduct more sessions on other applications of Digital Signal Processing.

Comsoc - The Commerce Department Society

Convenor: Ms. Parveen Kaur Lamba

The Commerce Society of SGTB Khalsa College had an eventful year filled with insightful discussions, hands-on learning experiences, and industry-oriented initiatives. With a strong commitment to bridging the gap between academia and the corporate world, the society actively worked towards equipping students with essential skills, industry knowledge, and valuable networking opportunities.

The year kicked off with ComTalk – How to Improve Employability in Students on October 7, 2024, where students were guided on crucial career-building aspects such as resume writing, interview strategies, and skill development to enhance their employability. Following this, on November 13 and 25, 2024, ComStox provided a dynamic platform for students to immerse themselves in the world of stock trading. This two-day stock market simulation event began with the Bidding Showdown, an engaging round where participants tested their negotiation and decision-making skills in an auction-style marketplace. The event culminated in the Mock Stock Finale, where finalists navigated a simulated stock market, making real-time investment decisions based on market fluctuations.

Moving into 2025, the society organized ComTalk – Business Analytics: A Contemporary Approach on January 24. This session featured industry experts who delved into the significance of data-driven decision-making and the use of analytical tools in shaping modern businesses. On February 2, the Comsoc Newsletter was released, providing students with an insightful compilation of industry trends, research articles, and student contributions, further fostering academic engagement and intellectual discourse.

The society continued its streak of impactful events with Casetify – The Ultimate Case Study Challenge on February 17, where students were tasked with analyzing real-world business problems and proposing innovative solutions. This event aimed to enhance strategic thinking, problem-solving, and leadership skills among participants. The highlight of the year was the Business Conclave on February 18, the society's flagship event that brought together entrepreneurs, educationists, and influencers for panel discussions on emerging business trends and professional growth. With an overarching theme of 'Incredible India: Leveraging AI and Digitalization for Inclusive Growth', the conclave provided a remarkable opportunity for students to interact with industry leaders, gain valuable insights, and expand their professional network. Dignitaries including Padma Bhushan Sardar Tarlochan Singh (Chairman), Principal Dr. Gurmohinder Singh, Vice Principal Dr. Harbans Singh, Dr. Vijender Singh Chauhan, and Major General Yashpal Singh Mor graced the occasion with their presence. Further, the panel discussions brought together some of the brightest minds in entrepreneurship, including Harteerath Singh Ahluwalia (Forbes 30 Under 30, Humanitarian & Social Worker), Mukul Chhabra (Founder, ScrapUncle, a digital waste management platform), Jyotiraditya Thakur and Krishbir Singh (Co-Founders of Bhag Club, a rapidly growing fitness community). Adding to the entrepreneurial spirit, Jatan Bawa (Co-Founder, Perfora), a proud alumnus of the college, shared his journey of building an innovative brand in the oral care sector. He discussed the challenges of scaling a startup, brand positioning, and consumer engagement in the digital era.

Bringing academic excellence to the forefront, the second panel included CA G.S. Grewal (Renowned Chartered Accountant and author of accounting textbooks), CA Parag Gupta (Founder, RKG Institute, a leading commerce education platform), Anuj Kumar (Founder, Shiksha Dham, a premier commerce coaching institute) and Arvind Shankar (Expert in Quantitative Aptitude and CAT coaching). The final panel featured some of the most influential digital creators like Yashvi Bagga (Fashion and Lifestyle Influencer), Jaspreet Kaur Dyora (Content Creator with over 825K Instagram followers), and Gia Gupta (Digital Influencer and YouTube personality). Moderated by experienced hosts, the panel explored the impact of digital influence, content creation strategies, and personal branding in the era of AI-driven marketing.

COMSOC conducted an interactive COMTALK - "Orientation cum vision for the 4th year" by Dr. H.N Tiwari on 28th March 2025 to familiarize and prepare the students for the 4th year of NEP programme on 28th March 2025, followed by another impressive interactive session on "3 Cs to Ace Interviews" by S. Gagan Singh COMZONE organised on 3rd April & 5th April 2025 was a vibrant event filled with excitement and creativity.

Business Conclave 2025 stood as a testament to the college's commitment to fostering intellectual discourse and industry-academia collaboration. The event not only ignited thought-provoking discussions but also strengthened the vision of 'Incredible India'—a nation thriving through AI-driven and digital-inclusive growth. With this milestone, Commerce Society continues its legacy of excellence, inspiring the next generation of business leaders, innovators, and changemakers.

Catenation - The Chemistry Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Neelam Anand

On 5th April 2025, CATENATION – the Chemistry Society of SGTB Khalsa College–hosted its annual departmental event FORMYS'25 on the occasion of LASHKARA'25 . The day began with energetic preparations and creative decorations by the volunteers of catenation society. A major highlight was the release of our annual magazine ZWITTER Volume 9, by the faculty. The members of the society were also awarded with certificates for their tenure in the society. The central attraction of the event was the inter-college Murder Mystery Game, a thrilling multi-level competition that tested the wit and analytical skills of participants. Students from various colleges enthusiastically participated, solving clues in an engaging, suspense-filled setup. Alongside, fun stalls like the “Scribble Tribble” game were organized in the college alley, adding a playful touch. The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where winners were awarded certificates and prizes. The event left everyone with lasting memories, photographs, and a deep appreciation for the hard work of the student organizers.

Curieux - The Computer Science Department Society

Convenor: Mr. P.D Sharma

The academic year 2024–2025 was a milestone for Curieux – The Computer Science Society of SGTB Khalsa College, marked by smooth leadership transition and the successful organization of impactful technical events that fostered innovation and critical thinking.

Student Council Elections

The Curieux elections were held and the results announced in February 2025. The democratic process saw enthusiastic participation from all batches. The newly elected council, composed of passionate tech enthusiasts, took charge with a vision to enhance the technical culture through skill-building events and peer-led initiatives.

Curieux'25 – A Day of Tech, Logic, and Strategy

On 5th April 2025, Curieux organized Curieux'25 as part of the college's annual cultural fest, Lashkara'25. The event attracted participation from students across institutions, offering a platform for collaborative learning and competitive coding.

Two main events were conducted:

1. Bug Bingo

A high-speed debugging competition where participants identified and fixed bugs in syntactically and logically flawed code snippets.

- Prelims: A rapid 3-minute 20-second round filtered top performers.
- Final Round: A 1-hour coding challenge emphasized code optimization.
- Outcome: Participants demonstrated deep algorithmic understanding and coding efficiency under pressure.

2. Code Relay Auction

An innovative coding + bidding event that merged logic with strategy.

- Mechanism: Teams bid on questions categorized into difficulty levels.
- Scoring: Points were awarded based on correctness and speed; incorrect answers drew penalties.
- Twist: Tie bids led to relay-style coding faceoffs.
- Impact: This event tested both coding skills and tactical thinking, standing out for its unique format.

AI Tic-Tac-Toe Challenge Stall

An interactive AI-based stall also featured at the event, drawing crowds throughout the day.

- Concept: Participants played against an unbeatable AI using the Minimax algorithm with Alpha-Beta pruning.
- Tech Stack: Backend in Python, frontend using JavaScript and HTML.
- Challenge: Most games ended in a draw; few beat the AI and won prizes.
- Educational Element: Volunteers explained the AI logic, turning the stall into a micro-learning station on game theory and decision trees.

Impact & Participation

The events were open and free for all, encouraging maximum participation and inclusivity. With over ₹10,000 in prizes and certificates for winners and runners-up, the competition fostered enthusiasm and recognition. Tiebreakers emphasized code efficiency, highlighting the importance of real-world software development practices.

Looking Forward

Curieux plans to expand its initiatives with upcoming bootcamps, AI/ML hackathons, and mentorship programs. The society remains committed to nurturing curiosity, coding excellence, and collaborative innovation among students.

Dastaan: The History Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Pratibha Chawla

The Department of History, with its society, Dastaan, at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, organized several engaging events throughout 2024, fostering academic growth, camaraderie, and guidance among students.

The Alumni Meet on May 2, 2024, featured two successful UPSC qualifiers, our alumni Nausheen Khan and Romit Bhatt. They shared their experiences and strategies for civil service preparation and the story of their perseverance and success. Their inspiring journey motivated students to pursue their goals.

The Farewell 2024 on May 13, 2024 was a heartfelt send-off for the graduating batch, featuring games, performances, and memory-sharing sessions. The event fostered nostalgia and gratitude, concluding with a celebratory lunch and loads of memories.

The Annual Elections on September 6, 2024 marked the return of the DASTAAN elections, where students elected new leaders to represent the department. Conducted with transparency, the elections were a significant milestone for student governance.

The Freshers' Welcome - अन्वेषण on September 21, 2024 introduced the new batch to their department with a vibrant celebration, including interactive games, cultural performances, faculty participation, and a hearty lunch. The event helped freshers feel welcomed and connected.

On November 27, 2024 students embarked on an educational Department Visit to the National Museum and Purana Qila. The museum tour provided insights into various historical periods, while the visit to Purana Qila allowed students to explore Mughal architecture firsthand. Faculty-guided discussions enriched the experience, making history more tangible with the trip and adding a joyous learning session.

On 7th February 2025, the Dastan Society, in collaboration with the Punjabi and Political Science department, organized a seminar called 'Colloquy on Partition Chronicles' with the esteemed author of 'Dukhre Sann Santali de,' Stories of Partition; Sanwal Dhami. It was a heart-wrenching and eye-opening interactive session that made us travel back in time to the tragic mishaps of the partition.

On 5th April 2025, the Dastan Society organized an inter-college debate on "Rethinking Traditions: Historical Legacy and the Evolution of the Idea of Viksit Bharat" on the occasion of Lashkara. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from 18 members across different colleges. The winners were awarded cash prizes of ₹3000, ₹2000, and ₹1000 respectively. A screening of the film "Superboys of Malegaon" was also organized on the theme "विरासत" (Legacy), with the active participation of over 30 students and teachers. Both events created immense excitement, inspiring insightful debates and rigorous critical thinking. Each of these events contributed to the academic and social development of students, fostering a strong sense of community within the History Department.

Ecotryst: The Economics Society of SGTB Khalsa College

Convenor: Dr Rupali Sharma

During the academic year 2024-25, Ecotryst organized a series of impactful events, ranging from academic lectures and workshops to dynamic student interactions.

On 5th September 2024, a general department orientation was conducted for first-year students, providing them with an overview of the department, academics, and available opportunities. Following this, in October, a Freshers' Event was held, fostering camaraderie between seniors and juniors through fun games, a talent hunt, and engaging performances.

On 11th November 2024, Ecotryst hosted a keynote lecture on "An Introduction to Behavioural and Experimental Economics" by Dr. Sujoy Chakravarty (CESP, JNU). He elaborated on the concepts of Homo Behavioralis, bounded rationality, and experimental methodologies such as RCTs. The session provided a deep understanding of economic decision-making and concluded with an interactive Q&A session.

In January 2025, Ecotryst organized a Beginner's Workshop on STATA, conducted by Dr. Apoorva Gupta (Hansraj College, DU). The hands-on session covered data entry, statistical commands, regression analysis, and time-series techniques. Dr. Gupta's practical demonstrations allowed students to develop essential econometric skills.

Beyond offline events, Ecotryst maintained an active social media presence, disseminating insightful content on contemporary economic topics. Posts covered the Nobel Prize in Economics 2024, the Union Budget 2025-26, the Buy Now Pay Later model, and the Gold Price Surge, engaging students in relevant economic discussions.

A significant highlight of the year was the participation of our department's six students, under the guidance of our faculty member Dr. Rupali Sharma, in the Rethinking Economics Festival 2024 at Royal Thimphu College, Bhutan. The festival focused on sustainable and equitable socio-economic models, global public goods, and collaborative development approaches. Students engaged with experts from institutions like the World Bank and Asian Development Bank. They also visited the Indian Embassy in Thimphu, participated in academic competitions and cultural exchange, enhancing their understanding of Indo-Bhutan relations and economic policymaking.

On 5th April 2025, the final day of Lashkara, Ecotryst hosted its second edition of the much-anticipated Da Vinci Code Mystery Room. With around 100 registrations, the competition was intense as participants battled for a place in the final round. Two shortlisted teams went head-to-head, racing against time to solve challenging puzzles that tested their wit, logic, and speed. The winning team took part in a challenging crossword based on economic and general knowledge. After a gripping face-off, Dhairya Mohan from Hindu College emerged victorious in a very close match and was awarded his prize by our respected faculty member, Professor Srividya Subramaniam.

Continuing its streak of creative academic engagement, Ecotryst also organized an exciting stall titled "Econ Arcade" under Lashkara. This vibrant corner of the event offered an innovative mix of learning and entertainment through specially designed board and cup games. The board games cleverly tested participants' understanding of economic concepts in an interactive way, while the cup games brought in elements of skill and strategy. Econ Arcade drew enthusiastic crowds and successfully sparked curiosity about economics, making the subject both fun and approachable for all who joined in.

The year was marked by academic growth, international exposure, and vibrant student engagement, reinforcing Ecotryst's commitment to fostering economic discourse and skill development.

Enkindled Minds-CA Aspirants' Cell

Convenor: Ms. Parveen Kaur Lamba

The academic year 2024-2025 was marked by a series of successful and impactful events organized by Enkindled Minds, the CA Aspirants' Cell of SGTB Khalsa College. These events aimed at providing aspiring Chartered Accountants with guidance, inspiration, and practical advice from accomplished professionals in the field.

The year began with "Disha 2.0: A path to your future", held on April 12, 2024, which was the second edition of this flagship event. The session featured renowned speakers CA Shubham Keswani (AIR 8, CA Final) and CA Vijender Agarwal (AIR 1, CA Inter & Final). Both speakers shared their expertise in audit, taxation, and career opportunities within the finance sector. CA Keswani's insights into modern audit practices and his advice on exam preparation motivated students to stay updated with technological advancements in the field. Similarly, CA Agarwal's session on taxation simplified complex concepts and encouraged students to embrace challenges. The interactive Q&A session provided students with an opportunity to clarify doubts and gain valuable advice on career growth and personal development.

The second major event, a panel discussion on Career Planning for Success, took place on October 22, 2024, in collaboration with NICASA (Northern India CA Students Association). This event saw over 100 participants who were treated to an enriching session with distinguished professionals: CA Jay Kumar Hotani, Gaurav Narula, and Vishakha Kohli Mutreja. The speakers discussed their professional journeys, highlighting the importance of career planning, resilience, and adaptability in today's competitive environment. The session emphasized that success goes beyond the Chartered Accountancy exams, exploring alternative career paths like investment banking, consultancy, and entrepreneurship.

On November 16, 2024, Enkindled Minds, in partnership with NICASA, NIRC of ICAI, organized the Round Table Conference: "Network to Net Worth". This event was attended by more than 40 participants who discussed the crucial role of networking in career growth. The session focused on the importance of building genuine connections, rather than merely expanding one's professional circle. Discussions also delved into the role of digital platforms like LinkedIn, the significance of collaborative study groups, and innovative networking approaches such as mock interviews. Participants left the event with a deeper understanding of how effective networking can lead to both personal and professional success, proving to be a valuable resource for CA aspirants aiming to build a successful career.

Enkindled Minds, the CA Aspirants Cell under the Department of Commerce proudly presented its flagship event Disha 3.0 - the 3rd Edition of a series dedicated to guiding students on their professional journey on 17th April 2025. Bazaar 3.0- an annual event of Enkindled Minds held on 5th April 2025 was a thrilling interactive experience

Throughout the year, these events showcased Enkindled Minds' dedication to empowering students with the knowledge, resources, and inspiration needed to excel in their CA journey and beyond. The combination of expert speakers, interactive sessions, and a supportive learning environment made these events an enriching experience for all involved.

- Educational trips and Botanical Excursions: A one week long Botanical Excursion, (October 15-20, 2024) was organized to Pachmarhi and Jabalpur for the Botany (Hons.) 1st Year, 2nd Year and 3rd Year students for the Paper: Biodiversity & Archegoniate to study the flora of the area.
- An educational visit to Tughlaqabad Biodiversity Park, Okhla Phase-1, Delhi was organized on 23rd October, 2024 for the Botany (Hons.) and Life Sciences 3rd Year students for the Paper: Natural Resource Management to observe the ongoing ecological restoration efforts at Tughlaqabad Biodiversity Park in restoring the native flora and fauna, and evaluate the impact of these efforts on the local ecosystem.
- One day educational trip to India Gate, New Delhi was also organized on 07th November, 2024 for Botany (Hons.) 2nd year students as a part of their practical curriculum for the paper: Phycology - The world of Algae.
- On 14th November, 2024 for Reproductive Biology of Angiosperms paper specific interaction on "Realm of Pollination and Flowers" was organized for Botany 3rd year Botany (Hons.) students under supervision of Dr. Inderdeep Kaur.

- The society celebrated its Annual Fest Gardenia'25 as part of the college's Annual cultural Fest Lashkara'25 by organizing various inter-college competitive events.

Through organizing such events, the Botany Department society encourages students for extra co-curricular activities and awareness towards the environment.

Inkspire: The English Literary Society

Convenors: Dr. Guntasha K. Tulsi & Dr Akhilesh Kumar

The English Literary Society, Inkspire, has continued to flourish as a hub for creativity, critical thinking, and literary exploration in the academic year 2024-25. This year, the society has expanded its horizons to include a variety of engaging events which promote collaboration, learning and creative expression.

- Newsletter Release (August 22, 2024): The launch of the annual newsletter showcased the success of our flagship event, a student- seminar on "Literature and the Art of Nonsense: The Nonsense Tradition in Literary Cultures and Visual Medium" held on April 5-6, 2024. This event explored the traditions within nonsense literature through engaging discussions and student participation, reflecting society's commitment to intellectual discourse and literary appreciation.
- Orientation Programme (September 4, 2024): The new academic year commenced with an enthusiastic Orientation Programme for newcomers. This event introduced students to society's vision, activities, and opportunities, fostering a sense of belonging leading to greater participation and recruitment.
- Qafila-e-Irfan (September 15, 2024): Qafila-e-Irfan, held at Mehrauli Archaeological Park (Mehrauli), delved into the mystical world of Sufism. Students recited works by renowned Sufi poets, alongside their own compositions inspired by themes of love and spirituality. The historical venue provided a meaningful backdrop, enriching the exploration of literary and spiritual traditions.
- Panel Discussion (November 20, 2024): "Invoking Gods and Goddesses: Interpreting Mythology and Its Evolution through Indian Literature": A stimulating panel featured three distinguished speakers— Dr. Namita Sethi (Associate Professor, JDMC), Dr. Animesh Mohapatra (Associate Professor, DCAC), and Dr. Richa Bajaj (Associate Professor, Hindu College). The discussion examined the representation of gods and goddesses through the ancient and medieval literary canon; the impact of defining events such as linguistic shifts, interrogation of cultural hierarchies and social divisions and the evolution of mythology in modern literature, sparking insightful exchanges between students and faculty.

Manviki - The Humanities and Social Sciences Society

Convenor: Dr. Roopam Jasmeet Kaur

Sayonara'24: Sayonara'24, the farewell for the graduating third-year students, was held on May 10, 2024. The evening was an emotional yet joyous occasion, filled with nostalgia and gratitude. Professors Dr. Amanpreet Singh Gill, Dr. Nachiketa Pant, and Dr. Roopam Jasmeet Kaur delivered heartfelt speeches, reflecting on the students' journey and their bright futures ahead. The event was a perfect blend of warm goodbyes, entertaining performances, symbolizing friendship, gratitude, and new beginnings.

Orientation Programme: On September 7, 2024, the department organized an orientation program to welcome and guide the incoming batch of students. The session provided valuable insights into the course structure, objectives, and various extracurricular opportunities available. It also fostered interaction between students, faculty members, and peers, helping to create a strong sense of community and collaboration within the department.

Society Recruitment: To ensure smooth functioning and effective student representation, the MANVIKI Society conducted a recruitment drive from September 9 to September 25. The selection process, overseen by convenor Dr. Roopam Kaur and Dr. Tarun Kumar, involved thorough interviews to appoint the core cabinet. In total, 37 students were onboarded, strengthening the society's foundation and promoting a dynamic, inclusive, and collaborative environment.

Heritage Walk: On November 14, 2024, the MANVIKI Society organized a heritage walk for 50 students to explore Delhi's historical and cultural heritage. Guided by Dr. Roopam Jasmeet Kaur and Dr. Indulekha P. Roy Burman, the walk began at the college. The first stop, Nizamuddin Dargah, introduced students to Sufi traditions. At Humayun's Tomb, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, they engaged in fun activities while admiring Mughal architecture. The final stop, Gurdwara Damdama Sahib, provided insights into Sikh teachings. The walk was an enriching experience that deepened students' appreciation of Delhi's history.

Speaker Session: On February 13, 2025, Mr. Ritwik Bhattacharjee conducted a session on "The Novel as an Art Form". He explored the evolution of the novel, its artistic elements, and its impact on literature. The session provided valuable insights into the novel as a literary and creative expression.

Student Achievements

- Amanjot Singh won the Digital Drawing category at 'Toon-Fest', an online art competition organized by the B.Sc. Programme Society of St. Stephen's College on May 14, 2024.
- Achintya Srivastava secured first place in the Poster Making Competition at 'The Fur-Tastic Forum,' hosted by Aakriti, the Zoology Society of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, on October 4, 2024.
- Krishna Shreyansh achieved second place in the Debate Competition at 'The Fur-Tastic Forum', on October 4, 2024.
- The department excelled at Khel Utsav 2024, winning four gold medals across different sports categories: Women's Volleyball, Men's Volleyball, Men's Relay Race & Women's CrossFit.

Nav Pallav-The Hindi Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Smita Mishra

On Hindi Diwas Utsav, Shri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa Mahavidyalaya celebrated a five-day Rajbhasha Week from 10th to 14th September 2024, marked by various inter-college competitions and events organized under the banner of Nav Pallav, Hindi Sahitya Sabha.

The celebration began on 10th September with the competition Khoj Pratyay, where participants identified literary works and their authors based on 25 given sentences within 40 minutes. Raj from Hindu College secured the first position, while Sandeep Yadav from Kirori Mal College came second.

On 11th September, a Rasa-based Poetry Recitation competition was held, where participants selected and recited poetry based on two out of four rasas: Veer, Shringar, Hasya, and Karuna.

Prabhav Pankaj from Hindu College won first place, followed by Sahil from Dayal Singh College.

An Extempore Competition took place on the third day, 12th September, where students spoke on spontaneously given topics in Hindi, with five minutes of preparation. Gaurav Singh Rathore from Hansraj College won first prize, while Nandini Haldar from Miranda House secured the second position.

On 13th September, a two-phase competition was organized, featuring Shrutlekh (Dictation) and Proverb/Idiom Usage. Shivam Mishra from Hindu College and Alok from SGTB Khalsa College bagged the first and second positions respectively.

The concluding event on 14th September was a thought-provoking discussion on “Hindi Students’ Struggles and New Employment Opportunities in Hindi.” The session began with a traditional lamp lighting ceremony. Department Head Dr. Nagesh Nath Das and Program Coordinator Dr. Smita Mishra highlighted the emotional and professional importance of Hindi. Guest speakers, including Dr. Gopal Yadav (Senior Official Language Officer, GAIL) and Shri Jagdish Ram Pauri (Director, Official Language, Ministry of Education), emphasized the need for excellence and self-confidence in promoting the Hindi language. However, some concerns were raised by students regarding the practical implementation of Hindi, indicating that further efforts are required in this direction. The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Amrendra Kumar Pandey.

Following this, between 23rd and 25th September 2024, a series of lectures was jointly organized by Punjab and Sindh Bank and the Rajbhasha Cell, focusing on Hindi’s historical background and its usage in various fields. Speakers included Dr. Sumita Lohia, Dr. Kanwaljit Kaur, Dr. Kuldeep Kapil, and Dr. Gagandeep Kaur, who discussed Hindi in banking, science, and technology. A Rajbhasha Application Workshop concluded the series.

On 12–13 November 2024, the college hosted a prestigious two-day international seminar titled “Sahitya Ki Shati Upasthiti – Ramdarash Mishra” marking the centenary celebration of Padmashri Dr. Ramdarash Mishra. The event featured eminent literary figures, including Surendra Sharma, Mamta Kalia, and former Union Education Minister Ramesh Pokhriyal ‘Nishank’. Sessions delved into themes such as gender, poetic style, prose, and translation in Mishra Ji’s work. The seminar concluded with tributes from scholars, dignitaries, and cultural icons, making it a landmark celebration of Hindi literature and legacy.

Polis -The Political Science Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Bipin Kumar Thakur

The Department of Political Science (POLIS) at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College had an eventful academic session (2024-2025) marked by a series of well-organized and intellectually enriching activities. From introducing first-year students to the department through the Orientation Program to fostering democratic participation in the Student Elections and culminating in the thought-provoking competitions of Adhikar '24, each event reflected Polis's commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and political engagement. Inter college Quiz Contest and Declamation organized during Lashkara 2025 were equally well attended and left huge academic footprints on the mind of the stake holders.

The academic year began with the Orientation Program, designed to familiarize first-year students with the department’s structure, faculty, and curriculum. To further strengthen the bond between new and senior students, Polis hosted Metanoia—The Official Freshers’ Party, a lively celebration that served as a platform for interaction and camaraderie. True to its academic and democratic spirit, Polis upheld the principles of student representation through its Student Elections for 2024-25. One of the most awaited academic events of the year was Adhikaar '24, an initiative that provided students with a platform to engage in intellectual and competitive activities related to the Constitution of India. The event featured two major competitions: the Quiz Competition and the Declamation Competition.

During the college annual festival Lashkara 2025, POLIS, the academic society of the Department of Political Science of SGTB Khalsa College organized its annual event on 5th April 2025, under the banner of POLIFEST 2025, featuring POLI-QUIZ and POLI-CANVAS, a poster-making competition on the theme of VIKSIT BHARAT.

Raah: The Business Economics Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Bibhu Prasad Sahoo

This year came out as a revolutionary year for RAAH, the Business Economics Society of SGTB Khalsa College. Under the leadership of Naman Kaur Dhanoa and Anmol Kumar, the society has successfully gained great momentum testimonies by the richness of the events organised by it.

Orientation - The society held an Orientation for the fresh batch on the 4th of September, 2024 where our Convenor clarified the NEP framework. It also hosted a Teacher's Day celebration with a heartfelt cake-cutting ceremony.

Khel Utsav - The Annual Inter-Department Sports Competition, Khel Utsav, brought with itself great moments of extraordinary resilience from the young athletes of the department. While the boys' Volleyball team made their way to the semi-finals, the girls' team bagged a silver medal. The sense of teamwork and perseverance shown by the athletes was encouraging.

Elentiya - RAAH hosted an unforgettable freshers' event, Elentiya, on October 19, 2024, creating an atmosphere of celebration and camaraderie. The day was marked by great enthusiasm and memorable moments.

Exploring Actuarial Science - A highly engaging seminar on "Exploring Actuarial Science – A Journey with IAI" took place in the seminar hall on the 18th of November, 2024. The event was hosted by Mr. Gurpreet Babbar, a Qualified Actuary who is also an alumnus of the 2017 batch. He emphasised the value of an actuary in the economy and the different aspects of this career choice. Evolving Financial Markets & Derivatives - On 29th of January, 2025, a thought-provoking seminar was hosted by Mr. Dinesh Jaisinghani on "Evolving Landscape of Financial Markets & Derivative Strategies". The seminar included his learnings and how one can use the derivatives market to its full advantage.

Bizzit - A strategic Inter-College BBE Mockstock Competition, Bizzit was introduced for the very first time by the society on the 3rd of February, 2025 at the Seminar Hall of SGTB Khalsa College. This event attracted great enthusiasm among the participants as they aimed to maximise their portfolio. The event was held in 9 rounds with each round lasting 10 minutes. All the teams were very proactive with their approach and showed great analytical skills. The hard work of the core team along with the relentless efforts of the volunteers made this flagship event successful.

Shoonya-The Mathematics Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Ruchi Kaur

Shoonya was re-initiated in 2022, and since its inception, the society has organised a variety of events, including competitions, interactive workshops, awareness marathons, and engaging activities throughout the academic years. The session began with an orientation ceremony for the new batch, and in September, 2024, Teachers Day was celebrated among the faculty and students. The day started with preparations, and a video presentation prepared by the students was delivered. Mrs. Daljeet I. P. Singh (former faculty) was also invited to grace the event.

CONFERENCE. The Department of Mathematics organised the International Conference on Mathematical Sciences and its Applications during October 15–17, 2024. Each day of the conference began with plenary & invited talks and followed up with 90+ paper presentations in all, by eminent scientists from various organisations. Success of the conference was evident from positive feedback received from the delegates.

Apart from that, the society also celebrated various other occasions such as the Freshers' party for newly joined batch, and a farewell for the out-going batch of 2025.

WRONSKIAN. Shoonya hosted various one-minute games (quickie quests) along with BidWiser: the IPL auction under LASHKARA '25. Over 150 teams from various colleges of DU & other institutes such as DTU registered, and top 10 teams made it to the college in-person for the final round. One minute games were also very enjoyable and the overall success was evident from popular participation and positive feedback received from all those participating in the event.

Sparks- The Physics Department Society

Convenor: Dr. Daljeet Kaur

Orientation program (19 September 2024)

An orientation program for the first year B.Sc. Physics students was organized by the Physics society. It began with a warm welcome of newcomers. An introductory session led by faculty members, outlining the curriculum structure, grading systems, and essential resources. The program highlighted the importance of physics in understanding fundamental natural laws and how the course would foster analytical and problem-solving skills. Students were also introduced to the wide range of lab equipment available for hands-on learning. Students were also introduced to research opportunities and student societies, encouraging active engagement in scientific pursuits beyond the classroom. The orientation concluded with a Q&A session and refreshments.

CSIR-NPL Visit (1st October 2024)

On its Open Day, B.Sc. Physics students of the SGTB Khalsa college visited the CSIR-National Physical Laboratory (NPL), gaining a unique insight into scientific research. This educational visit allowed students to explore various scientific advancements and witness the practical applications of physics in a real-world setting. Students participated in guided tours of various laboratories, witnessing cutting-edge research in fields such as metrology, nanotechnology, and material science. Students observed advanced laboratory equipment, such as high voltage and current labs, radio wave demonstrations and atomic clocks, deepening their understanding of high-precision measurement technologies crucial for scientific and industrial progress. The visit concluded with a Q&A session, where students engaged directly with scientists, clarifying doubts and exploring future career pathways in research. This Open Day experience was highly inspiring, expanding students' perspectives on the impact of physics and scientific research.

Exploring the world inside an Atom

On November 7, 2024, the Department of Physics at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College hosted an enlightening talk titled Exploring the World Inside an Atom. The event took place in Physics Lab 2, at 11:30 AM and was attended by 23 students and 5 faculty members. The speaker for the session was Dr. Mohammad Naimuddin, an esteemed professor at the Department of Physics and Astrophysics, University of Delhi. He is internationally acclaimed for his contributions to particle physics and has been honoured with the Scientific Associateship by the European Centre for Nuclear Research (CERN). Among his accolades, he was also awarded the INSA Young Scientist Medal by the Indian National Science Academy in 2011. The talk explored the fundamental nature of atoms, the basic building blocks of matter, and their subatomic components: protons, neutrons, and electrons. Dr. Naimuddin explained how quarks, which make up protons and neutrons, are currently regarded as the smallest known particles in the universe. He also discussed how particle physics research is conducted in various accelerators, such as SLAC, Fermilab and CERN.

The session concluded with an engaging Q&A segment, where students posed thought-provoking questions related to Dark Energy, Big bang and God Particle etc. These discussions showcased the students' enthusiasm and curiosity, leaving them inspired by the profound complexities of atomic science. The Department of Physics takes immense pride in organizing intellectually enriching events that foster curiosity and ignite a passion for exploration among aspiring physicists.

Introduction to Quantum Computing with Superconducting Circuits

In celebration of the United Nations' declaration of 2025 as the International Year of Quantum Science and Technology (IYQ), Sparks-The Physics Society and the Department of Physics at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College organized a talk titled Introduction to Quantum Computing with Superconducting Circuits on 9 January 2025, also marking the 82nd birth year of renowned physicist Dr. Stephen Hawking.

The event featured our alumnus from the 2020 batch, Mr. Harsh Bhardwaj, currently a Doctoral Student at RWTH Aachen University, Germany. The session was held in Room G5 at 1:45 PM. The event was attended by 29 students and 5 faculty members, who actively participated in engaging discussions following the talk. He highlighted cutting-edge advancements in quantum computing, particularly the role of superconducting circuits in building scalable quantum systems. Harsh shared his research journey, addressing common myths, challenges, and opportunities in the field of quantum computing, and offered personal insights from his experiences working in a lab environment. He provided attendees with a clearer understanding of the flourishing landscape of quantum computing research and emphasized its wide-ranging potential across industries, from cryptography applications to optimization and simulations. The session ended with a Q&A segment where Harsh addressed key questions from the audience. These included the sources of errors in quantum systems and methods for correcting them, the distinction between qubits and logical qubits, and why a quantum computer with a larger number of qubits may not always outperform a system with fewer qubits. Additionally, he dispelled common myths surrounding quantum computing research, which further enriched the academic exchange. The event was a huge success, aligning with the global celebrations of IYQ, and encouraged the next generation of physicists and researchers to explore the vast possibilities within the realm of quantum science.

Unraveling the Invisible — The Neutrino Story

On the International Day of Women and Girls in Science i.e. 11th February 2025, SPARKS—The Physics Society of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, honored the contributions of women physicists who have played a crucial role in unraveling the mysteries of the universe by organizing a talk titled Unraveling the Invisibles — The Neutrino Story.

We had the honor of hosting Professor Poonam Mehta, a distinguished UGC Professor in the School of Physical Sciences at Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) in New Delhi. Professor Mehta has received several accolades, including the Bharat Vikas Award in Bhubaneswar (2017) and Science Merit Awards from Delhi University (1995 and 1997). She has also completed fellowships at CERN in the USA, DESY in Germany, DAAD Research Stay, and CSIR.

The session, which took place in Room G5 at 12:30 p.m., was attended by 26 students and 5 faculty members, who actively engaged in discussions following the lecture. Prof. Mehta highlighted key topics such as the Nobel Prize awarded for the proof of neutrinos' existence, neutrinos from natural resources, and the discovery of neutrino oscillations. She also pointed out the significant Indian connection to neutrinos, as they were first discovered in the Kolar Gold Fields (KGF) in 1965.

The session concluded with a Q&A segment during which Prof. Mehta addressed key questions from the audience. These included methods used by scientists to detect neutrinos and the relationship between general relativity, particle physics, astrophysics, and neutrino physics. The event was a tremendous success, aligning with global celebrations of International Women's Day and encouraging the next generation of physicists and researchers to explore the vast possibilities in neutrino physics.

The Business Café - Editorial Board of Department of Commerce

Convenor: Dr. Mansi Bansal

The Business Café is an Organisation dedicated to spread information, create joyful memories with the crew and create opportunities for the newbies to upskill not only from the society but also students from other colleges as well. This year has also been amazing for the society compared to the last few years as all the events which took place were successful and all the crew and the cabinet had a very good bonding session. The Cabinet, this year has done an excellent job at handling all the members by providing tasks by seeing the calibre and gave equal chances to each member to prove themselves which led to all the following events be successful.

- ThinkO'Quest- This is one of the main attraction of the society's events as it is the start of the tenure. In this tenure was held on 25 November 2024. This event had a prizepool of 5000 rupees which was held in the basketball court of the college itself and Think'O'Quest had clues and those clues led to the QRs which were spread out all over college. This event had some intense competition as all the teams were really close to winning.
- BizGeist- Bizgeist is the official magazine of TBC. Bizgeist consists of the latest world affairs which are in highlight or are a little underrated. It also includes trending topics, Decoding terms such as Mansplaining and other, miscellaneous topics and new topic which was introduced in this tenure was Fact or not which is related to things work the way how they are presented or they are just sugarcotted lies. Bizgeist was released on 29th July 2024 during annual function. This time a 1st year was given the golden opportunity to present themselves as the Coordinator of the magazine.

- SpectraCom-This is the most wholesome thing which is done by TBC which is providing the seniors who graduate at the end of the final semester and would keep SpectraCom as a memory. SpectraCom was released on May 11, 2024.
- The Business Cafe, The Editorial Board of the Department of Commerce organised the 2nd Edition of INK and IMPACT on 22nd Feb 2025. This innovative event provided a platform for young artists to showcase their digital creativity centred on the theme “Viksit Bharat @ 2047”. TBC organised its flagship event The MIC DROP which was held on 5th April 2025 exhibiting inclusive platform for individuals to express themselves through spoken words, poetry, music and performance arts.

SOCIAL OUTREACH PROGRAMMES

CDF - Connecting Dream Foundation

Convenor: Ms. Rigzin Kang

The Connecting Dreams Foundation (CDF) at SGTB Khalsa College has actively pursued impactful social change through its student-led initiatives, focusing on education, women empowerment, skill development, and holistic growth. The foundation currently runs four key projects: Kilkari, Ramyata, Sarvaangeen, and Svashray, all aligned with various Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Project Kilkari: Education for All (SDG 4 – Quality Education)

Launched to bridge the learning gap for underprivileged children, Project Kilkari provides free education in both online and offline modes.

Collaborations:

- My Angels Academy (Online): Operating since 2019 for students in Odisha and Delhi
 - 12 batches, 15 interns
 - Classes from 1st to 11th grade across key subjects.
- Sewa Bharti (Offline – Malkaganj):
 - 40 beneficiaries, 10 interns, 5 classes per week

Internship Program:

- Duration: 3, 7, and 9 months
- Initial interns: 25 | HRs: 7

Events:

- Online: Lohri & Makar Sankranti, Holi
- Offline: Children’s Day

Future Goals:

Educational camps, quizzes, and co-curricular competitions to boost engagement and learning.

Project Ramyata: Empowering Rural Artisans (Women Empowerment & Livelihood)

In collaboration with Nepathya Foundation and Saarika Creations, Project Ramyata supports 50+ women artisans in Kalonda Village and Lucknow by promoting handmade jewelry businesses through SHGs.

Beneficiaries:

- Direct: 40 women (ages 18–40)

Stalls & Outreach:

- SGTB Khalsa College (Bollywood Day) – 18 Oct 2024
- SBSC (Diwali Event) – 23 Oct 2024

Future Goals:

- Expand collaborations with more NGOs
- Diversify product range beyond earrings and jhumkas

Project Sarvaangeen: Holistic Learning (Education & Personality Development)

Started in 2020, Sarvaangeen promotes non-textbook learning and life skills development for children in underserved communities.

Collaborations:

- My Angels Academy (Online): Genki English sessions (20 beneficiaries)
- Sewa Bharti & NLR (Offline – Malka Ganj, Srinivaspuri):
 - 50+ beneficiaries across 1st to 8th grades
 - Mentoring, computer bootcamps, and academic support

Activities:

- 21 field visits across Delhi
- Genki & brainstorming sessions
- Active social media and YouTube presence

Future Plans:

Stationery drives, education camps, and inter-centre competitions

Project Svashray: Women Empowerment through Skills (SDG 11 – Sustainable Communities)

Svashray empowers women in slum areas through skill development in digital marketing and stitching, in collaboration with Tare Zameen Foundation.

Beneficiaries:

- Direct: 10 women
- Indirect: 40 through community impact

Events & Visits:

- Stalls at SGTB (Bollywood Day) and SBSC (Diwali)
- NGO visits: Tare Zameen Foundation (Chattarpur), Shakti Shalini (Lajpat Nagar)

Future Goals:

- Expand product range beyond tote bags and scrunchies
- Build more collaborations for broader outreach

The CDF chapters at SGTB Khalsa College continue to drive meaningful change by empowering communities through education, skill-building, and social awareness. With dedicated volunteer efforts and strategic collaborations, these projects remain committed to sustainable impact and inclusive growth.

Electoral Literacy Club

Convenor: Dr. Ruchi Kaur

The Electoral Literacy Club of the college is an initiative taken on the directions of the Election Commission of India to promote voting awareness among citizens, especially targeting 18–21-year-old citizens of India. ELC organized multiple seminars, awareness rallies, and creative competitions to promote informed voting. set up voter registration desks, helping 250+ students apply for Voter IDs.

Environment and Sustainability Committee

Convenor: Dr. Lakhvinder Kaur

The Environment and Sustainability Committee of SGTB Khalsa College, University of Delhi, is committed to fostering a sustainable and environmentally responsible campus. Through initiatives focused on waste reduction, segregation, and efficient management, the committee actively promotes environmental awareness and best practices. A range of sustainability programs has been implemented on campus, including waste segregation at source, aerobic composting of kitchen waste from the hostel mess, leaf bin composting for horticultural waste, and pit composting for dry leaves. The campus has also engaged in mushroom cultivation as a sustainable method for utilizing agricultural waste and has promoted paper recycling initiatives. To further support plastic waste management, the committee has installed a plastic waste collection bin made from recycled plastic and placed benches made from recycled plastic on the college campus.

The committee has organized various awareness activities, such as a poster-making competition on waste management. To ensure responsible recycling of paper waste generated in different departments, a partnership has been established with Jagruti NGO. The collected paper waste is sent for recycling, and in return, the college receives A4-size recycled paper for academic use. Waste audits have been facilitated in the college, conducted by officials from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD). Recently, the committee organized an awareness lecture on waste segregation in partnership with MCD, educating cleanliness workers and students on the significance of waste segregation, its implementation, and its environmental benefits.

Through these initiatives, the Environment and Sustainability Committee continues to lead efforts in creating an eco-friendly and sustainable campus environment.

Gandhi Study Circle

Convenor: Dr. Jagir Kaur

The Gandhi Study Circle at Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College embarked on a transformative journey in the academic year 2024-25, rebuilding itself with a renewed vision. The society not only upheld Mahatma Gandhi's ideals but also expanded its discourse to contemporary intellectual themes, fostering a space for critical thinking and meaningful discussions.

The year began in August with the revitalization of the society, emphasizing intellectual engagement through discussions on a broad range of topics. Beyond Gandhian philosophy, sessions covered themes such as feminism, realism vs. idealism, and modern socio-political issues. These discussions provided a platform for students to exchange ideas, challenge perspectives, and deepen their understanding of crucial philosophical and social concepts. Furthermore, our students actively participated in various inter-college competitions, including essay writing and quizzes focused on Gandhian philosophy, showcasing their commitment to his principles.

In January, the society observed Martyrdom Week, paying homage to Mahatma Gandhi's sacrifices for truth, non-violence, and justice. Through dialogues and collective reflections, students explored the contemporary relevance of his teachings. A highlight of the week was the screening of The Making of the Mahatma, a film depicting Gandhi's transformation from a lawyer in South Africa to a global leader of non-violent resistance. The movie not only educated but also inspired students, reinforcing the power of perseverance and ethical leadership.

The most enriching experience of the year was the educational visit to Gandhi Smriti and Gandhi Darshan on 31st January 2025, organized under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college. The visit commenced with an address by the museum guide, who encouraged students to explore the exhibits. A guided tour provided an in-depth understanding of Gandhi's contributions to India's independence, his personal life, and his core philosophies. The interactive digital exhibits, a memorial shrine, and the preserved simplicity of his last residence at Birla House left a profound impact on participants. The visit concluded with a discussion followed by an interactive session on reinforcing the significance of Gandhian values in contemporary society.

The annual event of the society, held on 19th February, revolved around the theme "Relevance of Tolerance and Coexistence in the Contemporary World." The speaker session featured thought-provoking discussions by distinguished scholars, including Prof. Narendra Kumar Centre for Political Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and Prof. K.P. Singh, Director of Gandhi Bhawan, who emphasized India's secular ethos and the need for peaceful coexistence. Following this, an extempore competition provided students with an opportunity to articulate their thoughts on diverse themes. A concurrent quiz on Gandhi's life engaged the audience, making the event both informative and interactive.

On 22nd February, the society participated in Kasturba Nirwan Divas, attending a town hall session that deepened their understanding of Kasturba Gandhi's contributions. Looking ahead, we plan to host a declaration competition and quizzes during the college's annual fest.

Lashkara Fest Quiz and Declamation Competition

The Gandhi Study Circle of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College successfully organized a Declamation Competition and Quiz Competition focusing on Mahatma Gandhi's life and the theme of sustainability on 3rd April 2025, as part of the college's much-anticipated annual fest, Lashkara.

National Cadet Corps

Care Taker Officers: Dr. Parkash Singh and Dr. Gurjeet Kaur

Kargil Vijay Diwas

On the solemn occasion of Kargil Vijay Diwas, the NCC cadets of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College organized a Tree Plantation Drive to honour the brave soldiers who made the ultimate sacrifice for our nation during the Kargil War of 1999.

The initiative aimed to not only pay homage to our heroes but also to promote environmental awareness and responsibility among the youth. Around 30 saplings were planted in SGTB Khalsa college Campus, including native species to support local biodiversity.

Blood Donation Drive

Blood donation is a noble act that saves lives. It helps patients in emergencies and medical treatments. Donating blood is safe, quick, and a vital contribution to public health.

Cadets from Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa NCC company have also contributed to this noble cause.

1. Two of our cadets participated in a blood donation drive organized by Blood Centre Main Hospital, AIIMS.
2. Two of our cadets also donated blood in EBSB Delhi conducted by Guru Nanak Dev Charitable Blood Centre.

3. Three of our cadets were also referred to Manipal Hospital, Dwarka Sec 7, New Delhi on urgent basis and helped a patient in emergency. (25 March 2025)
4. Three cadets contributed to the blood donation drive in collaboration with NSS.
5. Five cadets went to Kasturba Hospital, Daryaganj for their contribution to this noble cause. The blood donation drive was conducted by 1 DNU.

National Service Scheme

Convener: Dr. Ruchi Kaur

Since its inception in 1969, the National Service Scheme (NSS) has embodied the philosophy of “Education through Service” and the motto “NOT ME, BUT YOU.” This academic year, the NSS unit actively engaged in several government-centric initiatives, including ‘Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam’, ‘Swachhata Hi Sewa’, and other community-focused events.

At the National Integration Camp organised by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and sports held in Haryana and Bangalore, our representatives, Ramandeep Singh, Harshit Chauhan and Sumit, participated in a series of cultural exchanges and collaborative activities. Their involvement fostered mutual understanding and provided a platform to share innovative ideas across diverse regions.

The National Youth Festival 2025, held from January 10–12, 2025, witnessed 14 enthusiastic volunteers who contributed to the management of events and competitions. The festival showcased visionary ideas for a sustainable India and featured cultural performances in singing, drawing, and dance. Few volunteers got the opportunity to have dinner with cabinet ministers. Various other eminent leaders also delivered inspiring speeches and interacted with the volunteers.

At the SOUL (School of Ultimate Leadership) Conclave, Ramandeep Singh represented the Delhi University among 200 other attendees. He got the opportunity to present his vision on ‘Vikas Bhi, Virasat Bhi’ in front of the Prime Ministers of India and Bhutan. Additionally, he was also given the chance to felicitate Arundhati Bhattacharya, a trailblazer in India’s financial sector.

A 7-day Special Camp was also organized by the Unit from the 21st to the 27th of March 2025. This camp included volunteers involved in various types of activities, both cultural and educational. Numerous events like seminars, awareness campaigns and field visits were organized. Seminar under Daan Utsav and discussion on themes like ‘One Nation, One Election’, were conducted, while slums such as Timarpur and Azadpur were visited to spread awareness, making this camp a success.

Projects:

1. Project Seekho – A three-day cyber security and self-defence camp in collaboration with Delhi Police. The event focused on student development by enhancing self-awareness and teaching physical and mental self-defence techniques, leading to active participation.
2. Project Jeev – Conducted the Pawsome Jacket Distribution Drive with the World Animal Protection Organization, distributing 50 jackets to street dogs identified through a detailed survey, helping them survive the harsh winter.

3. Project Sehat – Organized a health camp with the Indian Cancer Society for individuals above 30, offering screenings for X-rays, mammography, prostate cancer, general check-ups, ENT, and gynaecology. The event saw around 100 participants, including teaching and non-teaching staff.
4. Project Dhara – Launched the Swachhata Hi Sewa campaign, promoting cleanliness through waste segregation, sanitation drives, and awareness workshops. Regular composting drives transformed organic waste into nutrient-rich compost, benefiting local gardens and encouraging sustainable waste management.
5. Project Khwaish – Volunteers visited Rose Udaan Home for Girls, engaging underprivileged and orphaned girls in games, quizzes, and interactive sessions. The visit aimed to inspire and uplift them while fostering values of empathy, service, and social responsibility.

Lakshya - The Enabling Unit

Convenor: Dr. Ruchi Kaur

Lakshya, the Enabling Unit of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, has been at the forefront of fostering inclusivity and empowerment through its diverse initiatives over the past year. The journey began with the grand celebration of Independence Day on August 14, 2024, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) and National Cadet Corps (NCC), honoring the values of freedom, diversity, and harmony. Continuing its mission of inclusivity, Lakshya organized a special school drive on Children’s Day at Abhyas Blind School, celebrating the joy of childhood while promoting awareness about accessibility.

Volunteers engaged visually impaired children in storytelling, music, and creative games, filling the day with laughter. The enthusiastic participation of the children, who showcased their talents with remarkable energy, made the event even more special. The initiative reinforced Lakshya’s commitment to fostering an inclusive and compassionate society. The event concluded with the distribution of refreshments, strengthening the bond between the volunteers and students.

Building on its commitment to empowerment, Lakshya successfully hosted Gyanodaya 2025, an inter-college quiz competition for visually impaired students of Delhi University. With over ten teams participating, the event was graced by distinguished judges, Dr. Tarun Kumar, Dr. Ujjwal Mukherjee, and Dr. Bunny Singh Bhatia, who were warmly welcomed by Ms. Ruchi Kaur, the convenor of Lakshya. The competition commenced with a pen-and-paper round featuring 15 challenging questions across history, politics, economics, and culture. As the competition intensified, five teams advanced to the next round, where they had to respond within tight time limits. The final rapid-fire round saw thrilling moments of quick thinking, and finally the winners were awarded cash prizes along with certificates of achievement, while all participants received certificates of participation. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks from the convenor, acknowledging the dedication of Team Lakshya and the enthusiastic involvement of all participants.

Through these carefully planned and passionately executed events, Lakshya has consistently demonstrated its commitment to inclusivity, education, and empowerment. Whether celebrating national pride, spreading joy among visually impaired children, or fostering academic excellence through competitions, the society has left a meaningful impact. With every initiative, Lakshya continues to uphold its mission of enabling individuals, breaking barriers, and working towards a more equitable society.

Proctorial Board

Convenor: Ms. Gurvinder Kaur

Anti Ragging (Flashmob): The flashmob was a collaborative effort of the Anti-ragging committee and Ankur- The theatre society under the aegis of IQAC, SGTB Khalsa College.

On 14th September 2024, a flash mob was conducted on campus to promote awareness about anti-ragging. The performance aimed to underline the significance of a safe and respectful educational environment. Through coordinated movements, dialogue and expressive gestures, the message of unity, empathy, and zero tolerance for ragging was strongly conveyed. The initiative received positive engagement from students and faculty alike, reinforcing the institution's commitment to student welfare. It served as a reminder that every student has the right to feel secure and included, and that a supportive atmosphere is essential for both academic and personal growth.

ANNUAL PRIZE DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE

Convenor: Dr. Jeepinder Jeet Kaur

The Annual Prize Distribution Committee aims to create a platform to honour achievements, strengthen community bonds, and inspire students. Through speeches, and awards, it nurtures academic excellence, extracurricular talent, and leadership making it a cherished tradition that enriches student life. The APDF Committee conducted the following events during the Academic Year 2023-24.

The APDF Committee co-organized the ECA Award Ceremony on May 7, 2024, in the college auditorium. During the event, 1,075 certificates were awarded to student members from 29 societies in recognition of their contributions throughout the academic year 2023-24. The societies represented included various ECA societies, NCC, NSS, CDF, and ICC. To acknowledge their leadership and commitment, the office bearers of these societies were additionally honoured with trophies.

The Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College was hosted on May 16, 2024, by the APDF Committee. The event was honoured by the presence of Sardar Harmeet Singh Kalka, President of the Delhi Sikh Gurudwara Management Committee, as the Chief guest. The Guests of honour of the day were Sardar Jagdeep Singh Kahlon, General Secretary of the Delhi Sikh Gurudwara Management Committee, and Professor Balram Pani, Dean of Colleges at Delhi University. The dignified gathering also included Padma Bhushan Sardar Tarlochan Singh (Former MP and Chairman, Governing Body), Sardar Inderpreet Singh Kochar (Treasurer, Governing Body), and Sardar Rishipreet Singh Sachdeva (Vice Chairman, Governing Body).

The ceremony commenced with a soulful rendition of Shabad Gayan, reinforcing the institution's rich traditions. Guests were warmly welcomed upon arrival with bouquets and mementos, setting a tone of reverence and celebration.

The Principal, Dr. Surinder Kaur presented the annual report, detailing the college's myriad activities and notable achievements over the past year. In his address, Prof. Balram Pani lauded the college for perpetuating the legacy of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji, congratulated and inspired the students to pursue excellence in all fields. Addressing the gathering, Sardar Harmeet Singh Kalka praised the principal, the teaching staff, and the non-teaching personnel for their exemplary efforts in organizing the ceremony and achieving excellence across various domains. He highlighted that the students continue to break new ground in academics, culture, and sports. Padma Bhushan Sardar Tarlochan Singh, in his address, remarked that despite being a minority institution, the college places a strong emphasis on merit-based recruitment and academic excellence. He also commended the contributions of the Sikh Gurudwara Management Committee and other Sikh institutions during the Covid pandemic.

In recognition of enduring service, teachers who have dedicated 25 years to the college were honoured, and former students selected in the 2023 Civil Services Examination were celebrated for their remarkable accomplishments. The release of the annual magazine 'Tegh' was a highlight of the event. Meritorious students, who excelled in academics, cultural pursuits, and sports, were awarded trophies and cash prizes. A total of 105 Awards/Scholarships were disbursed to Academic Toppers and students who excelled in various fields including NCC, NSS and Kirtan Awards. Their achievements were met with enthusiastic applause from an audience that stood in support, wishing them a bright and promising future.

SOCIAL MEDIA COMMITTEE

Convenor: Dr. Ravinder Kaur Bedi

Constituted in the October of 2024, the Social Media Committee of the college was tasked with developing and managing the social media channels of the college. In an age where the public perception of institutions is formed through the dissemination or information in the most systematic, organised, and aesthetic manner, social media has become a poignant source of such forms of information dissemination and, alongside, inviting the world to share in the events of the said institution. The Social Media Committee of the college, with the same understanding, began working by creating official channels of the college on Instagram, Facebook, and X. Afterwards, the committee invited photographs and reports from all college societies and committees to send photographs and reports of all the events they had organised since August 2024. The overwhelming response and support enforced the commission of student members into the Social Media Committee who sorted through all the reports and helped the faculty members of the committee to successfully upload the news and photographs of the events. Subsequently, the Committee has been uploading the events which have happened almost simultaneously to allow the world to see and participate in (even if virtually) all the varied and colourful events organised in and by the college.

STUDENTS WELFARE COMMITTEE

Convenor: Dr. Dharmendra Kumar

The Students' Welfare Committee, driven by its commitment to academic excellence and inclusivity, has undertaken several initiatives to support students from economically weaker sections and those with disabilities. These efforts aim to ensure that financial constraints do not hinder their educational aspirations. On November 8, 2024, an interview process was conducted to identify and shortlist students in need of financial assistance from a pool of 200 scholarship applicants. Following a thorough evaluation, scholarships worth Rs. 9,17,000/- (Rupees Nine Lakh Seventeen Thousand only) were awarded to 106 deserving students, enabling them to pursue their studies with greater ease.

To further enhance awareness about available financial aid opportunities, the committee organized an online seminar on December 5, 2024, in collaboration with Buddy4Study Foundation. This session provided valuable insights into various scholarship programs, equipping students with the knowledge to explore and apply for financial assistance.

In addition to supporting economically weaker students, the committee also prioritized the needs of students with disabilities. Twelve ANGEL Devices were procured and distributed to ensure better accessibility and learning support. Furthermore, the Help the Blind Foundation (HTBF) awarded scholarships totaling Rs. 2,10,000/- (Rupees Two Lakh Ten Thousand only) to students under the Persons with Disabilities (PWD) category, benefiting 10 first-year students and 11 second-year students in 2025.

Through these initiatives, the Students' Welfare Committee remains steadfast in its mission to foster an inclusive, equitable, and supportive academic environment, empowering students to achieve their full potential. The Student Welfare Committee held its annual award ceremony on May 7, 2024, honoring 43 students who secured second place in their respective courses with a trophy and a certificate. Furthermore, seven students of foreign languages viz. French, Spanish, German, Japanese, Korean and Chinese; were awarded with certificate of appreciation. Additionally, seven students received merit-cum-means scholarships, established by current and retired faculty members, as well as eminent personalities associated with the college. This event recognized academic excellence and provided financial support to deserving students, reinforcing the institution's commitment to nurturing talent and promoting educational opportunities.

TEGH - THE ANNUAL MAGAZINE

Convenor: Dr. Ravinder Kaur Bedi

With roots reaching back to 1953, Tegh is far more than just a college magazine—it is a tradition woven into the fabric of our institution, a living archive of its ever-evolving journey, and a heartfelt tribute to the voices, dreams, and achievements of its students. Now in its 72nd edition, Tegh continues to be a space where imagination thrives, stories find a home, and the soul of college life is captured in all its richness.

This year's edition is especially close to our hearts. It is dedicated to the 350th martyrdom anniversary of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji—a moment of deep remembrance and reflection. Through this special issue, we honor his timeless legacy of courage, compassion, and unwavering righteousness. His spirit gently guides the essence of this magazine, reminding us to be fearless in expression and grounded in truth.

What makes Tegh truly special is its inclusivity. It brings together students' literary contributions in English, Hindi, and Punjabi—celebrating the multilingual spirit of our campus and ensuring that creativity knows no bounds. Whether it's a thoughtful article, a stirring poem, or a reflection penned between lectures, Tegh ensures every voice finds space and dignity.

It also offers a vibrant snapshot of the college's dynamic ecosystem—covering everything from departmental and society activities to the dedication of our NCC cadets and the achievements of our sports stalwarts. Each story echoes passion, perseverance, and pride. Signature segments like the Hall of Fame shine a light on the academic toppers and exemplary students who have brought honor to the college, while insights into Gurudwara Sahib events and heartfelt messages from the principal and dignitaries further enrich the pages.

Released each year on the Annual Day of the college, Tegh is not just a publication—it is a celebration. A celebration of who we are, what we stand for, and the legacy we carry forward—together.

WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL

Convenor: Dr. Roopam Jasmeet Kaur

The Women Development Cell (WDC) of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, University of Delhi, remained steadfast in its mission to promote gender equality, awareness, and inclusivity throughout the academic year 2024-25. Under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), WDC organized insightful discussions, interactive events, and awareness campaigns, fostering dialogue on gender justice and social change.

Key Events and Initiatives

1. Panel Discussion on "Resisting Patriarchy" (4th March 2025)

WDC organized a panel discussion titled "Resisting Patriarchy", featuring distinguished speakers:

- Dr. Janaki Abraham (University of Delhi)
- Mr. Mukul Manglik (Formerly at Ramjas College)
- Dr. Madhvi Zutshi (SGTB Khalsa College)
- Mr. Saikat Ghosh (SGTB Khalsa College)

The discussion examined patriarchy as a deep-rooted social structure, touching upon historical perspectives, gender-based violence, consent, and media representation. The session concluded with an engaging Q&As addressing women's political agency, feminism's evolving waves, and inclusivity in gender discourse.

2. Period Pain Simulator Event

In collaboration with the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC), WDC organized a Period Pain Simulator event, allowing participants—especially men—to experience the discomfort of menstrual cramps. The event successfully raised awareness, fostered empathy, and challenged menstrual taboos.

This year, WDC played a pivotal role in encouraging critical discussions on gender issues and breaking societal stigmas. Moving forward, WDC aims to organize more awareness programs and interactive discussions; strengthen initiatives promoting gender inclusivity and intersectionality; continue efforts toward creating a safer and more equitable campus environment.

With its unwavering commitment, WDC strives to empower students through education, dialogue, and action, contributing to a progressive and inclusive society.

STUDENTS UNION

Convenor: Dr. Jasneet Kaur Wadhwa

The student union elections were held on 27th September 2024 along with DUSU elections. The oath taking ceremony took place on 28th November 2024.

The newly elected Student Union includes Akash as President, Jasvir Singh as Secretary, Jasneet Singh as Joint Secretary, and Abhiraj Rana and Anurag Tomar as Central Councillors.

The much-awaited cultural fest Lashkara '25 commenced on an auspicious note with a soulful Shabd recital by Anhad, the college's divinity society. This was followed by the ceremonial lamp lighting, symbolizing the beginning of creativity and celebration. The lamp was lit by Principal Prof. Gurmohinder Singh, Vice-Principal Prof. Harbans Singh, and other esteemed faculty members from the Students' Union Advisory Board. The official fest brochure was also unveiled during the ceremony. Prof. Gurmohinder Singh addressed the gathering, encouraging students to embrace the spirit of the festival with full enthusiasm.

The opening day also included a prize distribution ceremony to recognize winners of the day's events. Distinguished guests included Chairman S. Tarlochan Singh, Treasurer S. Inderpreet Singh Kochhar, and governing body members Mrs. Rupinder Kaur, S. Nirmal Singh, and S. Balwinder Singh Kohli. Guest performers S. Ramneek Singh Chadha and S. Nirmal Singh Sethi added to the festivity. The ceremony was beautifully organized by the Students' Union Advisory Board faculty members.

The three-day event saw vibrant participation from students across Delhi's universities. Day 1 featured dynamic dance competitions by the Western and Bhangra societies, captivating the packed auditorium. Street theatre by the Theatre Society and exhibitions by the Photography and Arts & Crafts Societies added further charm.

Day 2 brought musical magic with a soulful band performance by Ms. Kavleen Kaur and her team, followed by a sensational main act by the acclaimed singer Mr. Prabh Gill. His performance was met with roaring applause and left the audience spellbound.

The final day focused on departmental events where students showcased academic and creative talents unique to their fields. The stage also came alive with theatre performances from various university societies, rounding off the fest with dramatic flair.

Lashkara 2025 was a true cultural showcase, bringing together students, faculty, staff, and members of the college's Governing Body in a spirited celebration of art, talent, and community at SGTB Khalsa College, Delhi University.

TEACHING STAFF ASSOCIATION

- The College Staff Association continues to be dedicated to enhancing the welfare of its members, fostering a sense of community, and supporting the college's overall mission. LAST WORD

As we reach the end of this annual report, I express a deep sense of pride and sincere appreciation. This compilation reflects the shared commitment, dedication, and spirit of excellence that defines Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College. We have not only upheld the high standards of academic and institutional excellence but have also surpassed them in many respects.

Our achievements extend far beyond academics and sports. They reflect the unwavering dedication of our faculty members—mentors, guides, and innovators—who continue to inspire students to meet the challenges of the future. Through their passion for teaching and their embrace of new methodologies, they have become catalysts for meaningful change within and beyond the college.

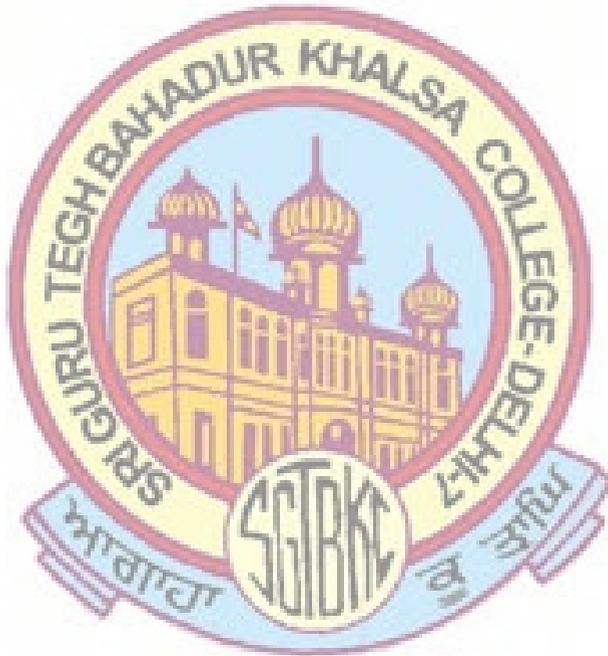

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Jeepinder Jeet Kaur and her team for coordinating this event. To our distinguished Chief Guest, Guests of Honour, members of the DSGMC, governing body, alumni, and our esteemed retired colleagues—thank you. Your presence today is a powerful affirmation of the strength and unity of our academic community.

Looking ahead, we remain committed to innovation and growth. The introduction of new courses and the emphasis on values such as integrity, equity, and responsible citizenship reflect our mission to nurture thoughtful leaders. Guided by the ideals of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib, we move forward with purpose, resilience, and hope.

Though there is always room for improvement, we draw strength from our collective will to evolve.

In conclusion, I extend my warm thanks to everyone present today. Your support and encouragement are invaluable. I also offer my humble gratitude to the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee for their continued trust and guidance as we carry this journey forward—with humility, purpose, and renewed commitment.

Thank you,
Gurmohinder Singh
Principal
