SAHIBZADA ZORAWAR SINGH

Sahibzada Zorawar Singh was the third of Guru Gobind Singh's four sons born in November 1696 to Mata Jeeto ji. Along with his younger brother, Sahibzada Fateh Singh, he is among the most revered martyrs in the history of the Sikhs. Joint army of Mughals and hill rajas besieged Anandpur Sahib on the orders of Emperor Aurangzeb. The stock of food in the town ran out. The Mughals promised to do no harm to the Sikhs if they would hand over the fortress of Anandpur Sahib. Guru Gobind Singh agreed and left the town with his family and a small band of retainers. They had not reached very far, when the Mughals, infringing their promise, chased them. Guru Gobind entrusted his two younger sons, Zorawar Singh and Fateh Singh as well as his mother, Mata Gujri, to the care of a cook in his household named Gangu. Gangu brought Mata Gujri and the two Sahibzadas to his native village of Sahedi. Bribed by the Mughals, he turned over the three members of Guru's family to the faujdar of Marinda. They were then brought to Sirhind in the presence of Wazir Khan, the Nawab of Sirhind. The two sons of Guru Gobind Singh, Zorawar Singh (9 years old) and Fateh Singh (6 years old) were offered safe passage if they embrace Islam. On their refusal, Wazir Khan sentenced them to death and they were subsequently bricked alive.

SAHIBZADA FATEH SINGH

Sahibzada Fateh Singh was the youngest son of Guru Gobind Singh. He was born at Anandpur Sahib in December 1699. On leaving Anandpur Sahib, after having been promised safe passage to Punjab, Sahibzada Fateh Singh, along with his elder brother Zorawar Singh, was put under the care of his grandmother, Mata Gujari.

Unfortunately in the confusion of the swollen Sarsa river and an attack by Mughal pursuers, the Guru's two youngest sons and their Grandmother were separated from the main body of Sikhs. Later betrayed by the authorities of the small village where they had been given sanctuary, they were handed over to agents of Wazir Khan and carted off to Sirhind and placed under arrest in the Khan's Thanda Burj (cold tower). While the Thanda Burj was built to capture the cool night breezes of air drawn over water channels in the areas of hot summers, during the dead of winter, the unheated burj offered no comfort for the Guru's mother and sons. On 26 December 1705, Fateh Singh and his elder brother, Zorawar Singh were martyred at Sirhind. Fateh Singh is probably the youngest recorded martyr in history who knowingly laid down his life at the very tender age of 6 years. In 2022, the Government of India declared 26 of December Veer Bal Diwas, to be celebrated every year, commemorating the supreme sacrifice of the two princes.

ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The manner in which the two Sahibzadas' stood against injustice and discrimination has no parallels in the annals of history. The courage and fortitude of the two boys eventually became a source of inspiration for the formation of the Sikh empire on the ruins of the Mughal kingdom. They stood for what is right and against tyranny and showed what the sons of the nations are capable of. It is this spirit of standing tall against the global crises of tyranny and oppression that the T20 tournament, named after the two Sahibzadas, organised by Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, Delhi University emblemizes. Cricket is, after all, a field that encapsulates freedom and unity as players from all castes, classes, religions, and states find a single voice through the game. The sportsmanship that the game espouses ensure equity and equality; especially in the face of a few elements of the world that seek to destroy it. This tournament, as a matter of fact, has, for the past eight years, upheld such ideals and intends to continue doing so especially in line with the Viksit Bharat 2047 vision of the Indian Government. The tournament, this year, comprises of 16 teams from across the Delhi NCR and is the only one that allows the players to play under a flood light in a day/night format. Effectively, the T20 tournament fosters a camaraderie that is seldom seen outside the field; thus encouraging a feeling of brotherhood and unity among all involved.

12 TH SAHIBZADA ZORAWAR SINGH AND SAHIBZADA FATEH SINGH T20 CRICKET TOURNAMENT

7th to 29th February 2024 The Xth iteration of the Sahibzada Zorawar Singh and Sahibzada Fateh Singh T20 tournament began on the 7th of February 2024. Since its inception in 2012, the Tournament has seen cricketers from across the nation play on the SGTB Khalsa College field.
